DESIGNATION OF SECURE LEAVE

NOW COMES Alicia Gaddy Vega, of The Dungan Law Firm, P.A., pursuant to Rule 26 of the North Carolina General Rules of Practice for the Superior and District Courts and Rule 33A of the North Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure, and hereby supplies the following information and makes the following designation of secure leave period:

1. I hereby designate the following secure leave periods:

October 12, 2009, through and including October 16, 2009

2. The dates of all other secure leave periods during calendar year 2008 that have previously been designated by me pursuant to Rule 26 of the General Rules of Practice or Rule 33A of the Rules of Appellate Procedure are as follows:

None

3. This secure leave period is not being designated for the purpose of delaying, hindering, or interfering with the timely disposition of any matter in any pending action or proceeding and no action or proceeding in which I have entered an appearance has been scheduled, peremptorily set or noticed for trial, hearing, deposition or other proceeding during the designated secure leave period.

4. This designation has been filed as follows: In the office of the trial court administrator for each superior court district and district court district, or if none, in the office of the senior resident superior court judge or chief district court judge for every superior and district court district, in which the undersigned has entered an appearance in a civil action.
