Opposition No. 91186028

Quiksilver, Inc.

v.

Oxy Cottontail, LLC

Answer was due on November 5, 2008. A review of the record shows that an answer has not been filed.¹

This case now comes up for consideration of opposer's motion, filed November 12, 2008, for default judgment against applicant for failure to file an answer. The motion is uncontested.²

Inasmuch as applicant failed to file an answer in this case, and failed to respond to opposer's motion in any manner, the motion for default judgment is granted. See Trademark Rule 2.127(a). Accordingly, judgment is hereby ¹ Applicant's motion to extend filed October 6, 2008 is granted as conceded.

² If a defendant fails to file an answer to a complaint during the time allowed therefor, the Board, on its own initiative, may issue a notice of default allowing the defendant time to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it. The issue of whether default judgment should be entered against a defendant for failure to file an answer may also be raised by means of a motion filed by the party in the position of entered against applicant, the notice of opposition is sustained, and registration to applicant is refused. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55 and Trademark Rule 2.127(a).
