Opposition No. 91187950

Triumph International, Inc.

v.

Michael Jackson

Linda Skoro, Interlocutory Attorney

On March 3, 2010, the Board issued an order entering judgment against applicant and sustained this opposition. On March 8, 2010, applicant's copy of that order was returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable. The envelope that was returned shows a forwarding address and the proceeding file has been updated with applicant's new contact information. This order serves as a final attempt to mail the Board's March 13, 2010 order.<sup>1</sup>

In view thereof, applicant is allowed THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order to file a sufficient and properly served motion to set aside the default judgment

<sup>1</sup> Applicant is reminded that it is its responsibility to ensure that the Board has its current correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party. TBMP § 117.07 (2d ed. rev. 2004). Accordingly, applicant's correspondence address has been updated to 828 Penny Lane, SE, Marietta, GA 30067-4425.

entered against it, failing which the default judgment against applicant on March 13, 2010 will stand.<sup>2</sup>

Applicant is also reminded that strict compliance with the Trademark Rules of Practice, and where applicable the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is expected of all parties before the Board, whether or not they are represented by counsel.

Should applicant respond to this order, opposer is allowed to inform the Board within FIFTEEN DAYS of the date of service of applicant's motion to set aside default judgment.

Proceedings herein are otherwise SUSPENDED.
