

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
Trademark Trial and Appeal Board
P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

DUNN

Mailed: July 15, 2011

Opposition No. 91188495

Detroit Red Wings, Inc.

v.

Red Wing Shoe Company, Inc.

Elizabeth A. Dunn, Attorney (571-272-4267):

This case now comes up on opposer's consented motion (filed June 29, 2011) to continue suspension of proceedings for thirty days.

The parties were required to provide a detailed report of their settlement actions since May 23, 2011 (the date of their last motion). But the June 29th motion is virtually identical to the previous (May 23, 2011) motion. Inasmuch as this proceeding has been pending for two and a half years, the Board does not believe that the minimal action taken during the previous suspension period is sufficient to warrant a further extension. In view thereof, the motion to suspend is denied.

Dates remain as previously reset. As a reminder, proceedings resumed July 3, 2011, and discovery closes December 30, 2011.¹

¹ If the parties believe that the time requested (thirty days) is indeed sufficient to complete settlement, it is noted that such time will run well before the end of the discovery period.