Opposition No. 91189781

Vintage Pharmaceuticals, LLC

v.

The Concept Foundation

Veronica P. White, Paralegal Specialist:

On October 19, 2013, opposer was ordered to show cause why its failure to file a brief should not be treated as a concession of the case. Opposer on October 21, 2013 filed a response indicating that it had not lost interest in the case, and that the parties were pursuing settlement discussions. In its response, opposer moved to suspend proceedings to allow additional time for settlement discussions and acknowledged applicant's consent thereto.

In view of the foregoing, the Board's show cause order is hereby discharged and opposer's motion to suspend is granted. Proceedings herein are suspended until February 25, 2014, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume February 26, 2014 without further notice or order from the Board, upon the schedule set out below.

Expert Disclosures Due	3/28/2014
Discovery Closes	4/27/2014
Plaintiff's Pretrial Disclosures	6/11/2014
Plaintiff's 30-day Trial Period Ends	7/26/2014
Defendant's Pretrial Disclosures	8/10/2014
Defendant's 30-day Trial Period Ends	9/24/2014
Plaintiff's Rebuttal Disclosures	10/9/2014
Plaintiff's 15-day Rebuttal Period Ends	11/8/2014

IN EACH INSTANCE, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
