Opposition No. 91192547

Couch/Braunsdorf Affinity,
Inc.

v.

Perkstreet Financial Inc.

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

Opposer's consented motion (filed August 1, 2011) to extend trial dates by thirty days so that the parties may finalize their settlement agreement is noted.

By order dated June 3, 2011, the Board, inter alia, advised the parties that, if they sought another request to extend or suspend for settlement (whether consented to or not), they would be required to provide a supplemental status report of their settlement efforts which must include the identification of settlement activities which have occurred for each month of the two-month extension granted by the order.

Following a careful review of opposer's latest consented motion to extend, the Board notes that while the status report concurrently provided with the consented request to extend does state that the parties have reached an agreement in principal to resolve this matter and that opposer's counsel is currently reviewing a draft agreement, the status report does not identify what settlement activities occurred for each month of the two-month extension previously provided, as required by the Board's June 3, 2011 order.

Accordingly, opposer's consented motion to extend is denied.

The Board notes, however, that the deadline for the parties' initial disclosures has already expired and so as to not prejudice the parties, trial dates, beginning with the deadline for initial disclosures, are extended to the limited extent set forth below:

Initial Disclosures Due	August 17, 2011
