Opposition No. 91193709

Hudson Clothing, LLC

v.

Jennifer Hudson

Michael B. Adlin, Interlocutory Attorney:

Applicant's consented motion, filed November 7, 2011, to extend disclosure, discovery and trial dates is granted. Trademark Rule 2.127(a). Dates are reset in accordance with applicant's motion.

However, the Board notes that the parties have sought numerous extensions of time since opposer commenced this opposition almost two years ago, yet the parties have yet to settle or meaningfully move this case forward. Therefore, in the event the parties seek any further extensions of time or suspensions, they must provide a detailed report on the progress of discovery served and responded to thus far and their settlement negotiations to establish good cause for any continued suspension or extension. The report must include a recitation of issues that have been resolved, a recitation of issues that remain to be resolved, and firm timetable for resolution. Absent such a report, any future motion to extend or suspend may not be approved, even though agreed to by the parties.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.
