Wrangler Apparel Corp.

v.

Hudson Clothing, LLC

Robert H. Coggins, Interlocutory Attorney:

This case comes up on opposer's consented motion (filed November 9, 2012) for continued suspension based on settlement negotiations.

Report Required

It is noted that the parties are under a requirement to provide a detailed report to establish good cause for any motion to extend, suspend, or reopen based on settlement. While the outstanding and previous two motions provided some information on the parties settlement efforts, all future motions must provide more detailed information. Specifically, any future motion to extend, suspend, or reopen must be supported by a detailed report to establish good cause by reciting (1) all dates on which the parties have communicated since the latest motion, (2) the method of each communication (e.g., telephone, email, in-person, etc.), (3) the general nature of each communication, (4) a list of issues that have been resolved, (5) a list of issues that remain to be resolved or remain for trial, and (6) a proposed timetable for resolution of the unresolved issues; failing which, the prospective motion may not be approved, even if consented by the parties.

Suspension

Opposer's consented motion to suspend is granted, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c). If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.¹ Dates are reset on the following schedule.
