Opposer consents to these amendments. Opposer and Applicant have agreed to settle the Opposition, and the settlement is based upon these amendments. Therefore, upon the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board's approval of these amendments and the entry of the amended language into Applicant's application, Opposer will withdraw its Opposition.

Applicant submits that these amendments are acceptable, without republication of the application, because the amendments do not broaden the scope of the goods, but instead narrow the scope of the goods from the more general "footwear" to the more specific "slipper socks," and because the amendment of the Description of Mark does not alter the mark.

Respectfully submitted,

Janska, LLC
