Opposition No. 91195635

J. Strickland & Co.

v.

Crown Grooming Ltd.

On January 12, 2011, the parties filed applicant's proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 77906172, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal with prejudice of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment. By the proposed amendment, applicant seeks to change the identification of goods from "After-shave balms; After-shave creams; After-shave emulsions; After-shave gel; After-shave lotions; Bar soap; Body powder; Body wash; Hair creams; Hair gels; Hair pomades; Hair shampoos and conditioners; Hair styling gel; Shaving balm; Shaving creams; Shaving foam; Shaving gels; Shaving lotions; Shaving mousse; Shaving soaps" to "after-shave balms; after-shave creams; after-shave emulsions; after-shave gel; after-shave lotions; bar soap; body powder; body wash; hair creams; hair gels; hair pomades; hair shampoos and conditioners; hair styling gel; shaving balm; shaving creams; shaving foam; shaving gels; shaving lotions; shaving mousse; shaving soaps, all of the aforementioned goods for sale only in the non-ethnic hair care and cosmetic market."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed with prejudice.
