Opposition No. _____

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Chanel, Inc., a New York corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of New York, located and doing business at 9 West 57th Street, New York, New York 10019 (“Opposer”), believes that it will be damaged by the issuance of a registration for an interlocking GC design trademark shown in Application Serial No. 77/853,137 for “sunglasses and spectacles” in International Class 9, and therefore opposes the same. As grounds for its opposition, Opposer, by its attorneys Fross Zelnick Lehrman & Zissu, P.C., alleges as follows:

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

A. Opposer’s Famous CC Monogram Mark

1. Opposer is a manufacturer and seller of a wide variety of luxury goods. In connection with its luxury goods business, Opposer has used a design comprising interlocking, back-to-back letter C’s (commonly referred to as the CC Monogram) as shown below:

Opposer has used the CC Monogram mark on a broad array of consumer goods dating back to 1920. The CC Monogram is one of the most respected and famous marks in the world, has become synonymous with Opposer, and serves exclusively to designate Opposer's high quality goods and services.

2. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the CC Monogram trademark, and is the owner of numerous valid U.S. federal trademark registrations for the CC Monogram mark for a wide variety of goods and services which registrations date back prior to any date on which Applicant can rely. Among the registrations Opposer owns for the CC Monogram in connection with eyewear are the following:

Mark	Reg. No.	First Use in Commerce	Class	Goods/Services
CC & Design	1,654,252	January 1990	9	Sunglasses
CC & Design	2,880,780	June 1, 2001	9	Eyeglass cases
CC & Design	3,022,708	July 1, 2004	9	Ski goggles, sunglasses
CC & Design	3,025,936	September 1, 2004	9	Eyeglass frames, sunglasses

All of the listed registrations are valid, subsisting and in full force and effect, and constitute prima facie evidence of the validity of the mark and of Opposer's exclusive right to use it on the goods identified in the registrations. In addition, Registration No. 1,654,252 for the CC Monogram mark for sunglasses is incontestable, meaning that it serves as conclusive evidence of Opposer's exclusive right to use the CC Monogram mark in connection with the identified products. Printouts from the United States Patent and Trademark Office's online database reflecting the registrations identified above are attached as Exhibit A and are made part of the record in these proceedings.

3. The CC Monogram mark is reproduced on millions of dollars worth of consumer goods (including but not limited to sunglasses and eyeglass frames), is featured extensively in advertisements in television, print and on the internet, and is displayed prominently on product packaging and on the products themselves. In the case of sunglasses, the CC logo is the focal point of the product. As a result of Opposer's efforts, the CC Monogram has become one of the most popular marks in the world and products bearing the CC Monogram mark are highly desirable.

4. Plaintiff has used and continues to extensively use the CC logo mark in advertising. Opposer engages in broad, organized and aggressive advertising activity that places the CC mark in front of consumers in a variety of ways including national magazines and newspapers with wide circulation, television and feature films, celebrity endorsements, celebrity photographs in magazines and in outdoor media. In addition, the CC Monogram and goods bearing the CC Monogram are the subject of significant unsolicited media coverage addressing everything from the history of the brand and recent products from the brand. Such unsolicited media coverage reaches tens if not hundreds of millions of consumers annually. It is therefore not surprising that surveys of brands consistently rank Opposer's brand as among the most recognized brands in the United States.

5. As a result of Opposer's use for close to ninety years of the CC Monogram mark in commerce in the United States, the CC Monogram mark has acquired enormous value and has become famous and well-known to the consuming public and the trade as identifying and distinguishing goods and services exclusively from, or authorized by, Opposer.

6. The United States Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board has recently held that the CC Monogram is "extremely famous" and has "been a fashion fixture for nearly a century in the United States” and, further, that the CC Monogram is entitled to and should be accorded “a very wide scope of protection.”

B. Applicant and Its Application

7. Upon information and belief, Applicant Shark Eyes, Inc. is a California corporation doing business at 2240 E. Washington Blvd., Los Angeles, California 90021.

8. Upon information and belief, and according to the records of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”), on or about May 12, 2010, Applicant filed Application Serial No. 77/853,137 to register a design mark consisting of interlocking letters GC as follows:

(the “GC Mark”) for “sunglasses and spectacles” in International Class 9.

9. Upon information and belief, Applicant was on actual notice of Opposer’s prior rights in the CC Monogram before seeking to register the GC mark opposed herein. As a matter of law, based on Opposer’s federal trademark registrations for its CC Monogram, Applicant was deemed on constructive notice of Opposer’s rights in the CC Monogram in connection with goods in Class 9.

10. There has never been any relationship between Applicant and Opposer and Opposer has never authorized or consented to Applicant’s use or application to register the mark opposed herein.

COUNT I: CLAIM FOR RELIEF UNDER SECTION 2(d)

11. Opposer repeats the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 10 as if fully set forth herein.

12. Opposer's rights in its CC Monogram mark were established long prior to any date on which Applicant may rely.

13. The GC Mark opposed herein is substantially similar to Opposer's famous and federally registered CC Monogram mark.

14. Applicant seeks to register the GC Mark for goods that are identical to those Opposer offers under the CC Monogram mark and that are the subject of Opposer's federal trademark registrations for the CC Monogram.

15. As a matter of law it is presumed that Applicant's goods are or will be sold in all channels of trade through which such goods generally are sold. Such channels of trade are or would be identical to the channels of trade through which Opposer offers its eyewear under the CC Monogram mark. In addition, the consumers for goods offered under Applicant's mark are presumed to be identical to Opposer's consumers since both Applicant and Opposer are offering, under their respective marks, identical or highly related products.

16. By virtue of Opposer's use and registration of the CC Monogram mark and the goodwill and fame associated with that mark, the registration by Applicant of a mark that is highly similar to Opposer's prior used CC Monogram mark for goods identical to those provided by Opposer, sold through the same channels of trade and to the same consumers as Opposer's goods, is likely to create the erroneous impression that Applicant's goods bearing the GC Mark originate from, come from, or are otherwise associated with Opposer or that Applicant's goods are endorsed, sponsored, or in some way connected with Opposer. Registration of the GC Mark is likely to cause confusion, cause mistake, or to deceive the public in violation of Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

17. Registration of Applicant's mark would be inconsistent with Opposer's prior rights in the CC Monogram mark, would be inconsistent with Opposer's statutory grant of exclusivity of use of the registered CC Monogram mark, and would destroy Opposer's investment and good will in its CC Monogram mark.

18. By reason of the foregoing, Opposer is likely to be harmed by registration of the opposed application for the GC Mark.

COUNT II: CLAIM FOR RELIEF UNDER SECTION 2(f)

19. Opposer repeats the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 18 as if fully set forth herein.

20. The CC Monogram mark is inherently distinctive or has acquired distinctiveness, has been used by Opposer for decades on or in connection with a wide variety of products, is the subject of numerous federal trademark registrations, and is widely recognized by the general consuming public as a designation of source of Opposer's goods.

21. Opposer has been using the CC Monogram mark nationally for decades, has engaged in advertising nationwide that features the CC Monogram and has otherwise publicized its mark throughout the United States. In addition, third parties have referred to, publicized or otherwise made mention of the CC Monogram mark. Such actions have resulted in extensive actual recognition and fame of the CC Monogram mark across the United States.

22. Applicant filed its application to register long after Opposer's CC Monogram mark became famous.

23. By reason of the similarity between Applicant's GC mark and Opposer's CC Monogram, the fame of the CC Monogram, and the exclusive association between the CC Monogram and Opposer, registration of the GC mark would dilute and/or is likely to dilute Opposer's CC Monogram mark by impairing the distinctiveness of Opposer's CC Monogram mark to identify exclusively goods from Opposer. Accordingly, registration of the mark shown in the Application herein opposed violates Section 2(f) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1052(f) and would be inconsistent with Opposer's statutory grant of exclusive rights in the CC Monogram mark.

24. By reason of the foregoing, Opposer is likely to be harmed by registration of the GC mark shown in Application Serial Number 77/853,137.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that Opposer's opposition be sustained and that the registration sought by Applicant in Application Serial No. 77/853,137 be denied.

The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board is hereby authorized to charge the opposition filing fee of $300 to oppose in a single class to Opposer's counsel's deposit Account Number 230825.
