Opposition No. 91201430

Hornady Manufacturing Company

v.

Central Holding Corporation

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

On December 9, 2011, opposer filed a motion to extend trial dates beginning with the deadline for the parties' required discovery conference. In support of its motion, opposer maintains that new counsel has recently made an appearance on its behalf<sup>1</sup> and its new attorneys require additional time to familiarize themselves with this matter, including the factual background and history of the case.

On December 13, 2011, the Board contacted applicant's counsel telephonically to inquire whether applicant would provide its consent to opposer's motion to extend. During the telephone inquiry, applicant's counsel provided applicant's consent to opposer's motion to extend.

<sup>1</sup> Opposer's new counsel filed their appearance on November 30, 2011. Board records have been updated to reflect opposer's new legal representation and new correspondence address.

Accordingly, opposer's motion to consent is granted as consented and for good cause.
