In view of the Settlement between the parties and pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.133(a), Applicant, NHK Enterprises, Inc. and Opposer, Domo Records, Inc. respectfully request that the description set forth in Application Serial No. 77/002483 for the mark DOMO be amended as follows:

computer software featuring programs used for animation design applications; computer software featuring games; mobile computers and cellular telephone accessories, namely, carrying cases; content for mobile applications, namely, still and animated wallpapers, screensavers, games and audio-visual programs not including music programs, all for mobile devices; video and multi-media recordings featuring an animated character, and bonus features not including music features; video game software.
2. The recitation of services in International Class 41 be amended to read as follows:
Television show production; multi-media production, namely, production of interactive TV-based games; mobile content production, namely, production of interactive games; entertainment services, namely providing on-line computer games; none of the foregoing services in relation to production of music programs.

3. All other goods and services listed in the Application Serial No. 77/0024283 will remain unchanged.

It is respectfully submitted that this amendment does not require republication because the amendment to the description narrows rather than broadens the scope of the application.

If the amendment is approved by the Board, Opposer, with Applicant's consent, requests that Opposition No. 91202124 be withdrawn.
