Trademark Trial and Appeal Board
P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

Mailed: November 7, 2012

Opposition No. 91205664

Basic American, Inc.

v.

Mastronardi Produce Ltd.

Robert H. Coggins, Interlocutory Attorney:

Now before the Board are opposer's motion (filed October 12, 2012) to strike, or, in the alternative, for judgment on the pleadings, and applicant's cross-motion (filed November 1, 2012) to amend the answer. By way of its brief in opposition to the motion to strike, applicant states that it has filed an amended answer which addresses all of the issues raised in the motion to strike, and that the motion to strike can be dismissed as moot. In view thereof, the Board considers the motion to amend before considering the motion to strike.

Motion to Amend

Amendments to pleadings in inter partes proceedings before the Board are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 15, made applicable to Board proceedings by operation of Trademark Rule 2.116(a). See Trademark Rule 2.107. Inasmuch as applicant's amended answer was not filed within twenty-one days of service of the original answer, and the original answer was not one to which a responsive pleading is required, applicant may amend its answer only by providing opposer's written consent or by obtaining leave of the Board. See Fed. R. Civ P. 15(a)(2). Opposer's written consent to the amended answer is not of record. In view thereof, the Board must determine whether to grant applicant leave to amend the answer.

In making such a determination, the Board is mindful that leave should be freely given when justice so requires. Id. The Board has reviewed the amended answer and determined that allowing the amendment would neither violate settled law nor be prejudicial to the rights of opposer. See TBMP § 507.01 (3d ed. rev. 2012). See also O.C. Seacrets Inc. v. Hotelplan Italia S.p.A., 95 USPQ2d 1327, 1328 (TTAB 2010). Moreover, the amended answer sufficiently addresses all of the issues raised in opposer's motion to strike by removing all of the affirmative defenses (i.e., paragraphs 13-20) raised in the original answer. In view thereof, the Board grants leave to amend the answer, applicant's cross-motion to amend is granted, and the amended answer is applicant's operative pleading in this proceeding.

Motion to Strike

In view of the Board's acceptance of the amended answer, opposer's motion to strike, or, in the alternative, for judgment on the pleadings, is moot.
