Dear Sir:

The payment for the above-referenced matter was originally submitted with the Opposition papers for Corrado's Specialty Goods, Inc. on July 25, 2012.

During a telephone conference with Nicole Thier, TTAB legal specialist, on August 7, 2012, we realized that the originally submitted credit card payment form for Corrado's Specialty Goods, Inc., looked exactly like the one sent at the same time with the submission for Opposer, Corrado's Wines & Liquors, Inc.

We sent three original copies of each Opposition, along with a credit card payment form for each. Each Opposition, with accompanying payment form was placed inside a large flat envelope and the two envelopes were placed inside one larger envelope. Since only one form for each Opposition is now required, evidently, although correctly filed, the second form was thrown away with the duplicate copies, with the assumption that it was also a duplicate. The second form was for Corrado's Specialty Goods, Inc.

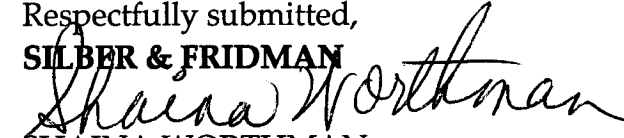

08-13-2012

Please process the Opposition papers and payment as of the originally filed date of July 25, 2012.

Enclosed is a credit card payment form for $300 for Opposer: Corrado's Specialty Goods, Inc., and copies of the originally submitted forms. The new form is being submitted in case you will not process a photocopy of the July 25 form.

Respectfully submitted,

SILBER & FRIDMAN
