Opposition No. 91207787

New Wave Group AB

v.

Craft Life, LLC

Jennifer Krisp, Interlocutory Attorney:

On May 1, 2013, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its involved application Serial No. 85614450 with an allegation of opposer's consent. By the proposed amendment, applicant seeks to delete International Class 25 in its entirety. The identification of goods in International Class 16 will remain unchanged.

With regard to International Class 25, in an opposition to an application having multiple classes, if the applicant files a request to amend the application to delete an opposed class, the request for amendment is, in effect, an abandonment of the application with respect to that class, and is governed by Trademark Rule 2.135. TBMP § 602.01. Trademark Rule 2.135 specifically provides that if, in an inter partes proceeding, the applicant files an abandonment without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment shall be entered against applicant.

Opposer's written consent to the proposed amendment is not of record.

In view thereof, applicant is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order in which to submit opposer's written consent to the abandonment of International Class 25, failing which judgment will be entered against applicant, the opposition will be sustained, and registration to applicant refused with respect to International Class 25.

Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
