v.

MD Insider Inc.

Wendy Boldt Cohen, Interlocutory Attorney:

On November 24, 2014, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial Nos. 85661456 and 85661463, with opposer's consent. By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to amend the recitation of services as follows:

Serial No. 85661456-International Class 41:

from "Providing on-line publications in the nature of electronic books, newsletters, journals, periodicals, articles, brochures, blogs in the field of medicine; Production of television programs."

to "Providing on-line publications in the nature of electronic books, newsletters, journals, periodicals, articles, brochures, blogs in the field of medicine, but expressly excluding the field of neurology; production of television programs."

from "Providing a website featuring information about medical practices, medical specialties, medical care givers, medical care centers, medicine, prescription and non-prescription drugs; Providing a website featuring medical information."

to "Providing a website featuring information about medical practices, medical specialties, medical care givers, medical care centers, medicine, prescription and non-prescription drugs; Providing a website featuring medical information; all of the foregoing services to enable consumers to locate and choose a practitioner or facility that is best for them."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, the amendment is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

It has come to the Board's attention that ESTTA, the Board's electronic system, granted applicant's December 18, 2014 motion to extend dates. In view of the Board's suspension discussed below, the Board's December 18, 2014 order granting applicant's motion to extend is hereby vacated.

If this amendment to the application resolves the dispute herein, opposer is allowed until THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order to file a withdrawal of the opposition, failing which the opposition will go forward on the application as amended. See Trademark Rule 2.106(c).

If no response is filed, proceedings will be resumed and dates reset, as appropriate. Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
