Opposition No. 91209942

Jules Shapiro and Juliette Tworsey

v.

Shoes by Firebug, LLC

Rochelle Adams, Paralegal Specialist:

Applicant's consented motions filed June 30, 2014 and August 27, 2014 to extend applicant's time to file its answer are noted.

In the Board's order dated April 30, 2014, the parties were advised that further motions to extend or suspend may not be granted in the absence of detailed explanation of the progress the parties have made towards settlement. However, the June 30, 2014 and August 27, 2014 motions do not include the required showing.

In view thereof, the motions to extend time are hereby denied without prejudice, and the parties are allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to submit a report, without disclosing confidential matter, which should include: a recitation of issues that have been resolved, issues that remain to be resolved, and a firm timetable for resolution. Upon submission and consideration of such a report, the parties' most recent consented motions may be granted, and other scheduling changes may be made.

In the meantime, answer, discovery conference and discovery and trial dates remain as previously set in the April 30, 2014 order.
