Opposition No. 91211107

85792 008

Erin P. Murphy

v.

Lawson Currie

Ellen Yowell, Paralegal Specialist:

The time for Opposer to file a brief on the case has expired and no brief on the case is of record.

Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides:

When a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. If plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that he has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

In view of the failure to file a brief, Opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat the failure to file a brief as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the notice of opposition with prejudice will be entered.<sup>1</sup> See TBMP §§ 536 and 801.02(a).

<sup>1</sup> Even if the Board discharges an order to show cause under Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3), dismissal with prejudice for failure to prosecute may be warranted under Trademark Rule

Proceedings are otherwise suspended.

A copy of this order will be mailed to Opposers at the following addresses:<sup>2</sup>

2.132(a) if a plaintiff placed no evidence in the record. In addition, if a plaintiff files a brief on the case concurrently with its response to an order to show cause under Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3), or wishes to be afforded an opportunity to file its brief, a plaintiff should set forth a motion to reopen its time to file a brief, which motion will be determined on the basis of whether plaintiff has shown that its failure to timely file such brief was the result of excusable neglect. See TBMP § 536.

<sup>2</sup> Opposer's copy of the Board's October 21, 2015 order was returned as undeliverable. After performing an online search, the Board has obtained the first address shown above. Opposer is advised that it may file a change of correspondence address using the Electronic System for Trademark Trials and Appeals (ESTTA) at: <http://estta.uspto.gov/>. Opposer is reminded of its responsibility to ensure that the Board has its current correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party. See TBMP § 117.07.
