CONSENTED MOTION TO EXTEND TIME

Dear Sir:

In this proceeding, ASTRAZENECA AB (Opposer) filed a Notice of Opposition against U.S. Application No. 79/128,403 for the mark ACTICAND, owned by PROBIOTICAL S.P.A., (Applicant). Applicant's Answer is now due on August 10, 2014.

The Notice of Opposition raises a number of questions and issues, both legally and factually. In addition, Applicant and Opposer have been communicating and exploring the possibility of settling this Opposition. Additional time is needed so that the parties can continue to try to settle this case, and, if necessary, so that Applicant can file an Answer. Accordingly, Applicant hereby requests that the time to file an Answer to the Opposition be extended for ninety (90) days, up to and including November 9, 2014, and that the trial, conferencing and disclosure dates be extended accordingly.

This request is made in good faith, and not for the purpose of delay. Opposer's counsel has consented to this ninety (90) day extension of time.

Respectfully submitted,

PROBIOTICAL S.P.A .
