Our concern with the registration of DSK solutions, serial no 85956261 is on the following basis:

- 1) The mark DSK is confusingly similar to DHK.
- 2) The application is for the general use of the text of DSK, not a stylized logo.
- 3) The services listed are substantially broad and cover all information technology services in class 42.
- 4) The services listed are in conflict with the listed services of our registered mark: Design and development of networks; Information technology consultation; Integration of computer systems and networks
