v.

Koninklijke Philips N.V.

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

It has come to the Board's attention that the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, the body that administers the Madrid Protocol, has issued an Irregularity Notice with respect to the subject application. In view thereof, proceedings are suspended.

The parties should not serve (and need not respond to) pleadings, discovery, or disclosures during this suspension. All dates set for this proceeding will be reset upon resumption, if necessary.

The Board is investigating the matter, and will notify the parties when proceedings are resumed, if appropriate.
