Opposition No. 91215312

Clock Tower Law Group LLC

v.

Jonathan F. Winocour, PC

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On July 21, 2015, Opposer filed a withdrawal of the opposition without prejudice with an allegation of Applicant's "consent" based upon the parties' settlement agreement. Opposer did not file a copy of the executed settlement agreement.

By order dated July 22, 2015, the Board explained that a plaintiff may not withdraw a Board proceeding without prejudice after an answer is filed without the written consent of the defendant. Because Applicant's written consent was not of record, the Board, by the same aforementioned order, allowed Opposer time in which to submit Applicant's written consent to the withdrawal, failing which the opposition would be dismissed with prejudice.

On July 22, 2015, Opposer filed Applicant's written consent to the withdrawal.¹

¹ Opposer's July 22, 2015, filing does not demonstrate proof of service of the same upon Applicant, as required by Trademark Rule 2.119. In order to expedite matters, Applicant may view Opposer's filing in TTABVue and the following URL address:
