v.

Kale Kilit Ve Kalip Sanayi Anonim
Sirketi

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

On September 14, 2015, Opposer filed a “motion for judgment on the pleadings.” A review of that motion indicates that it relies on matters outside of the pleadings and is therefore a motion for summary judgment on its likelihood of confusion claim on the ground of res judicata (or claim preclusion).<sup>1</sup> See TBMP § 504.03 (2015). Accordingly, further briefing of that motion is due in accordance with Trademark Rules 2.119(c) and 2.127(e)(1).

Proceedings are suspended pending disposition of Opposer’s motion for summary judgment. Any submission filed during the pendency of this motion which is not relevant thereto will be given no consideration. See Trademark Rule 2.127(d).
