Application Filed on September 6, 2013/Published on May 19, 2015

KIMBER IP, LLC, Opposer
v.	Opposition No.: 91223851
AEGIS ACADEMY, LLC, Applicant

APPLICANT AEGIS ACADEMY, LLC'S ANSWER TO NOTICE OF OPPOSITION AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In response to the Notice of Opposition filed by Kimber IP, LLC ("Opposer"), Aegis Academy, LLC ("Applicant") files this Answer and Affirmative Defenses.

Approximately 3 ½ years ago, Applicant commenced use of  ("AEGIS ACADEMY & Design"), the mark at issue in this Proceeding, believing it to be a distinctive mark for firearms training services and available for Applicant's use and registration.

Opposer claims that Applicant's trademark creates a likelihood of confusion with Opposer's AEGIS mark for pistols. Applicant vigorously contests Opposer's claim, which is not supported by any evidence of which Applicant is aware.

In short, the evidence will show that Opposer's AEGIS is not the well-known trademark that Opposer asserts, nor does Opposer have the exclusive right to use the term "AEGIS." In fact, the evidence submitted by Applicant to date shows that all of Opposer's products represent only 1.4% of the U.S. gun market. However, AEGIS is not Opposer's house mark (which is KIMBER) but the product name for only one (1) gun model out of Opposer's approximately 54 gun models. If applied equally to all of Opposer's gun models, that results in Opposer's AEGIS pistol representing a tiny fraction (only 0.026%) of the U.S. gun market. Further, Opposer's AEGIS pistol is not approved for sale in California, which suggests that this product's share of the U.S. gun market is even less than 0.026%. Finally, the evidence shows that there is a crowded field of AEGIS marks (where small differences between the trademarks and the goods and services are sufficient for consumers to distinguish them) and no instances of actual confusion, and that Opposer does not offer training services, and if it did, would use its house mark KIMBER and not the AEGIS product name of one of its 54 gun models.

To the extent that any allegations are asserted in the preamble, Applicant denies each and every allegation.

1. DENIED. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the allegations of Paragraph 1 of the Notice of Opposition.

2. DENIED. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the allegations of Paragraph 2 of the Notice of Opposition.

3. DENIED. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the allegations of Paragraph 3 of the Notice of Opposition. Applicant notes that, as set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, the most cursory search of the USPTO's database reveals 163 live applications and registrations for trademarks containing the term "AEGIS," so therefore Opposer cannot have "substantially exclusive use of the name and mark AEGIS."

4. DENIED. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the allegations of Paragraph 4 of the Notice of Opposition.

5. DENIED. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the allegations of Paragraph 5 of the Notice of Opposition.

6. DENIED. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the allegations of Paragraph 6 of the Notice of Opposition. Applicant notes that, as set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof, Opposer's AEGIS pistols are not approved for sale in California.

7. DENIED. Applicant admits that the TSDR records of the USPTO indicate that on May 24, 2006, Opposer filed an application to register the mark AEGIS for firearms, namely, pistols. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of and therefore denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 7 of the Notice of Opposition. In particular, as set forth in Exhibit C attached hereto and made a part hereof, Applicant notes that the TSDR records of the USPTO indicate that Opposer filed its AEGIS application on an intent-to-use basis and therefore its application did not claim any date of first use.

8. DENIED. Applicant admits that the TSDR records of the USPTO indicate that on January 1, 2008, the USPTO issued a Certificate of Registration for the mark AEGIS ("Opposer's Registration Certificate"), but as set forth in Exhibit D attached hereto and made a part hereof, that Certificate of Registration was for Reg. No. 3,363,677 (not, as Opposer asserts, "Registration No., 3363,677") and was issued for use on firearms, namely, pistols in International Class 13 (not, as Opposer asserts, "in connection with" firearms, namely, pistols).

9. DENIED. Applicant admits that the TSDR records of the USPTO indicate that Opposer's Registration Certificate is valid, subsisting and in full force and effect. Applicant is not required to admit or deny any matter of law. Applicant notes that Opposer's Registration Certificate is for the mark AEGIS as used on pistols, and not for any other goods or services. Furthermore, Applicant notes that Opposer's prima facie evidence is subject to Applicant's contrary evidence and arguments.

10. DENIED. Applicant admits that the TSDR records of the USPTO indicate that an Affidavit Under Section 15 has been filed and accepted for Opposer's Registration No. 3,363,677. Said Registration cannot be conclusive evidence of Opposer's "exclusive right to use the mark AEGIS in commerce," as Opposer's Registration is limited to use of the mark AEGIS on pistols and does not serve as evidence regarding the right to use AEGIS on any other goods or services.

11. DENIED. Applicant admits that by virtue of Opposer's Registration No. 3,363,677, Opposer has standing to bring this Opposition. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to Opposer's use of the mark AEGIS.

12. ADMITTED.

13. DENIED. Applicant admits that on September 6, 2013, it filed U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 86/057823 for the mark  with a date of first use of April 25, 2012 for firearms training services in International Class 41. Applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to whether Opposer's use of the mark AEGIS on pistols is well-known. Applicant notes that Applicant is based in California and that Opposer's AEGIS pistols are not approved for sale in California. Applicant's evidence filed with the USPTO in connection with this Application showed that Opposer sold only 1.4% of the firearms produced in the United States, and that includes all of Opposer's approximately 54 gun models, so this one gun model is unlikely to be "well-known." Applicant further notes that the most cursory search of the USPTO's database reveals 163 live applications and registrations for trademarks containing the term "AEGIS," so it is clear that Opposer does not have "prior exclusive rights in the mark AEGIS." Opposer's statement that "[n]otwithstanding Opposer's well-known and prior exclusive rights in the mark AEGIS, Applicant filed [this Application]" implies that Applicant intentionally intended to infringe on Opposer's trademark rights, which is not true. When

Applicant commenced use of its  mark for firearms training services and filed this application, Applicant believed that  was available for Applicant's use and registration and did not infringe on any rights of Opposer or any other person or entity.

Applicant continues to believe and assert that its  mark for firearms training services does not infringe on any rights of Opposer or any other person or entity.

14. ADMITTED.

15. DENIED. Applicant is not required to admit or deny any matter of law.

16. ADMITTED.

17. DENIED.

18. DENIED.

COUNT 1

19. Applicant repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 18 above.

20. DENIED.

21. DENIED. Applicant notes that in Applicant's evidence filed with the USPTO in connection with this Application, there is no evidence that product names for gun models are used by manufacturers for training services.

22. DENIED. In particular, Applicant notes that Applicant is based in California and that Opposer's AEGIS pistols are not approved for sale in California.

23. DENIED. Applicant notes that in Applicant's evidence filed with the USPTO in connection with this Application, only about 10% of gun buyers seek training services, and the majority of them use training facilities that are independently owned by a professional or attached to a gun shop. Furthermore, Applicant notes that in Applicant's evidence filed with the USPTO in connection with this Application, in situations where training is offered by a gun manufacturer, it is offered under the house mark (here that would be KIMBER) such as SIG SAUER, SMITH & WESSON, GLOCK, COLT, RUGER, and REMINGTON, and not under a model name (here that would be AEGIS).

24. DENIED.

25. DENIED.

26. DENIED.

27. DENIED. Applicant notes that in its 3 ½ years of using  , it has experienced no actual consumer confusion with Opposer's AEGIS mark.

28. DENIED.

Conclusion Paragraph. To the extent that any allegations are asserted in the unnumbered WHEREFORE paragraph following Paragraph 28, Applicant denies each and every allegation.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Without prejudice to the denials set forth in this Answer and without admitting any allegations not otherwise admitted, Applicant avers and asserts the following additional defenses to Opposer's claims:

FIRST DEFENSE (Failure To State A Cause Of Action)

1. Opposer's claims are barred because Opposer fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE (Trademark Misuse)

2. Based on information and belief, Opposer has filed this Opposition not because there is any likelihood of confusion with Applicant's uses, but in order to reserve rights in the mark AEGIS.

THIRD DEFENSE (No Likelihood Of Confusion)

3. There is no likelihood of confusion between Opposer's AEGIS trademark and Applicant's applied-for  service mark.

FOURTH DEFENSE (Marks Differ In Sight, Sound and Meaning)

4. Applicant's  mark differs in sight, sound, meaning and overall commercial impression from Opposer's AEGIS mark.

FIFTH DEFENSE (Applicant's Services Are Not Related To Opposer's Goods)

5. Applicant's firearms training services are not related to Opposer's pistols. In particular, as set forth in Applicant's evidence filed with the USPTO in connection with this Application, Opposer's mark is the product name of one (1) of approximately 54 gun models, and not Opposer's house mark (KIMBER). As set forth in Applicant's evidence filed with the USPTO in connection with this Application, gun model names are not used by manufacturers for firearms training services, and therefore Applicant's services are not related to Opposer's goods.

SIXTH DEFENSE
(Good Faith And Innocent Intent)

6. At all times, Applicant acted with a good faith belief in the propriety of its conduct and that its adoption and use of its AEGIS ACADEMY & Design mark does not constitute infringement of any trademark.

SEVENTH DEFENSE
(Unclean Hands)

7. Based on information and belief, Opposer failed to disclose the limited nature and extent of its actual use of AEGIS or the vast number of marks registered and in use that contain the term "AEGIS," and as a result has asserted claims which clearly are not supported by the facts.

EIGHTH DEFENSE
(Abandonment)

8. Based on information and belief, if Opposer's rights in the AEGIS mark for pistols ever extended into training services, Opposer has abandoned those rights by failing to enforce against third parties using marks containing AEGIS for training services.

NINTH DEFENSE
(Additional Defenses)

9. Applicant will rely on any and all other valid defenses which may be developed through discovery and/or the testimony periods in this Proceeding.

WHEREFORE, Applicant having fully answered Opposer's Notice of Opposition, and setting forth Applicant's affirmative defenses, prays that the Notice of Opposition be dismissed, that the Certificate of Registration for Applicant' Mark be issued, and that any such further relief be granted to Applicant as may be deemed reasonable and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

Roster of Handguns Certified for Sale

Search

Effective January 1, 2001, no handgun may be manufactured within California, imported into California for sale, lent, given, kept for sale, or offered/exposed for sale unless that handgun model has passed firing, safety, and drop tests and is certified for sale in California by the Department of Justice. Private party transfers, curio/relic handguns, certain single-action revolvers, and pawn/consignment returns are exempt from this requirement.

Use the query form to find the handgun models currently certified for sale in California.
All handguns listed on the roster are approved with or without night sights.
