THE NEW SCHOOL

Opposer,

PARSONS XTREME GOLF, LLC,

Applicant.

Opposition No.: TO BE ASSIGNED

Application No.: 86/403,911

Mark: PARSONS XTREME GOLF

Filed: September 23, 2014

Published for Opposition: April 14, 2015

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Opposer, The New School, (“Opposer”), a New York corporation having its principal place of business at 66 W. 12th Street, New York, NY 10011, believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 86/403,911 (“the Application”), filed by Parsons Xtreme Golf, LLC (“Applicant”), a Delaware limited liability company having its principal place of business at 15475 N. 84th Street, Scottsdale, AZ 85260, on September 22, 2014, and hereby opposes the same.

As grounds for the opposition, it is alleged as follows:

1. The New School is a private university in New York City, founded in 1919. The New School’s Parsons School of Design, widely known and referred to under the mark PARSONS, is an art and design school that is one of the five schools of The New School. Parsons was the first school in the United States to offer programs in fashion design, graphic design, and advertising, and has been offering its design curriculum under the PARSONS name since 1941. Parsons is widely regarded as one of the most prestigious art and design schools in the world. Since substantially prior to the filing date of the Application, and any use by Applicant of the mark in the Application, Opposer has continuously used the PARSONS mark in connection with its wide range of educational and design-related services.

OPPOSER'S RIGHTS

2. Opposer owns U.S. Registration No. 2,475,942 for the PARSONS mark for “educational services, namely, providing on and off site lectures and instruction at the undergraduate, graduate, and adult education levels in the fields of fine arts, liberal arts, environmental design, communications design, illustration, interior design, fashion design, product design, photography, and architecture” in International Class 41. U.S. Registration No. 2,475,942 issued on August 7, 2001, from an application filed on Jun. 8, 2000, and has attained incontestable status. Attached as Exhibit A are true and correct copies of the registration certificate, Notice of Acceptance of Section 8 and Section 15 Affidavits, Notice of Acceptance of Section 8 Declaration and Section 9 Renewal, Assignment, and the TSDR record for U.S. Registration No. 2,475,942. Opposer owns the mark covered by this registration, the registration itself, and the goodwill and reputation of the services connected with and symbolized by the mark. Opposer has used the mark in connection with these services since long prior to the filing date of the Application.

3. Opposer has continuously offered and promoted its wide range of educational and design services under the PARSONS mark since at least as early as 1941. Through continuous use and promotion of its marks, Opposer has acquired common law rights in the PARSONS mark.

LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION AND FALSE SUGGESTION OF A CONNECTION

4. By its Application Serial No. 86/403,911, Applicant seeks to register the mark PARSONS XTREME GOLF for “custom design and engineering of golf equipment; design and development of golf equipment; computer services, namely, providing search platforms to allow users to request content from and receive content to a computing device or a wireless telecommunication device; computer services, namely, providing customized web pages featuring user-defined generated content automatically selected and customized based on the known or estimated geographical location of a user; providing temporary use of on-line non-downloadable software to enable users to view and listen to audio, video, text, and other multimedia content; hosting an online website featuring content relating to sports; hosting of digital content on the Internet” in International Class 42.

5. This Application was filed on September 23, 2014 on an intent-to-use basis, well after Opposer’s first use of its PARSONS mark and well after Opposer registered its PARSONS mark.

6. Applicant’s PARSONS XTREME GOLF mark is substantially similar in sight, sound, meaning, and commercial impression to Opposer’s PARSONS mark as to be likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive, and to falsely suggest a connection with Opposer.

7. PARSONS is the dominant element in both Applicant’s and Opposer’s marks because it is the first word, and the word most likely to be remembered and used by consumers to indicate the source of the respective goods and services. The additional terms in Applicant’s marks will not dispel confusion because Applicant’s mark includes Opposer’s mark in its entirety. Consumers may be led to believe that PARSONS refers to a house mark and Applicant’s products and services are offered by or associated with the Opposer. The term XTREME is a variation of the word “extreme,” which is a laudatory adjective and does not serve to distinguish Applicant’s mark from Opposer’s well-known mark, while the word GOLF is generic and has been disclaimed by the Applicant. Consumers are likely to believe that Applicant’s Parsons School of Design, an institution widely known for its cutting-edge approach to design, is the source of PARSONS XTREME GOLF products. Therefore, Applicant’s mark and Opposer’s mark are confusingly similar in appearance, sound, meaning, connotation, and commercial impression. Moreover, Opposer’s PARSONS mark points uniquely and unmistakably to Opposer’s Parsons School of Design in the fields of product and fashion design, and Applicant’s mark falsely suggests a connection with Opposer.

8. On information and belief, Applicant’s services are related and complementary to the design education services that Opposer offers under its PARSONS mark. Parsons is a leading school for art and design, including product and fashion design in the United States. Parsons is widely known to have educated some of the most innovative designers behind leading fashion brands. Parsons student and alumni projects also include product, technology, and transdisciplinary design. On information and belief, Applicant will be offering its custom design and digital content services in connection with its golf equipment and accessories to consumers interested in fashion and design, and who are likely to be familiar with Opposer's PARSONS mark and renowned design school.

9. On information and belief, Applicant intends to offer its proposed goods through channels of trade that may overlap with those used by Opposer for its services under the PARSONS mark or to consumers familiar with the Parsons School of Design.

10. In view of the fact that Applicant's PARSONS XTREME GOLF mark is substantially similar in sight, sound, meaning, and commercial impression to Opposer's PARSONS mark; that on information and belief, Applicant's goods and Opposer's services are related and complementary and that the channels of trade and customer bases for Applicant's and Opposer's respective services appear to be the same or overlapping, Applicant's PARSONS XTREME GOLF mark so resembles Opposer's PARSONS mark as to be likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive. Opposer's PARSONS mark is widely known in the fields of product and fashion design, and Applicant's mark falsely suggests a connection with Opposer. Opposer would thereby be damaged by registration of Applicant's PARSONS XTREME GOLF mark. Opposer's goodwill and reputation will be jeopardized by Applicant's use and registration of the PARSONS XTREME GOLF mark.

MERELY A SURNAME

11. Applicant's mark is primarily the surname of Robert (Bob) Parsons, the founder of Applicant Parsons Xtreme Golf. Attached as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the What Do The Numbers Mean? page on the Applicant's website. As noted above, the term XTREME is a variation of the word "extreme" and is merely a laudatory adjective, while the word GOLF is generic and has been disclaimed by the Applicant. Accordingly, Applicant's mark is primarily merely a surname, which is non-registrable under 15 U.S.C. § 52(e)(4).

12. Moreover, Applicant filed the Application on September 23, 2014 on an intent-to-use basis. Applicant has not yet filed a Statement of Use. Accordingly, on information and belief, the Mark is a non-registrable surname that has not become distinctive as used in connection with Applicant's goods or services as required by 15 U.S.C. § 1052(f).

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that application Serial No. 86/403,911 be rejected, that no registration be issued thereon to Applicant, and that this opposition be sustained in favor of Opposer.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: October 9, 2015

WHAT THE NUMBERS MEAN

PXG founder Bob Parsons served as a rifleman with the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. A recipient of the Purple Heart Medal, Combat Action Ribbon and Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry, Parsons credits his service in the Marine Corps for his successes in life.

PXG's unique club numbering system is a tribute to the brave men and women who serve in the United States Marine Corps. The Marine Corps' Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) is a system for categorizing career fields. All enlisted and officer Marines are assigned a four digit code denoting their occupational field and specialty.

DRIVER – MOS 0811

Field Artillery Cannoneer: As a member of a field artillery howitzer battery, cannoneers prepare artillery pieces and equipment for movement, combat and firing.

IRONS & WEDGES – MOS 0311

Rifleman: The riflemen employ the M16A2 service rifle, the M203 grenade launcher and the squad automatic weapon (SAW). Riflemen are the primary scouts, assault troops and close combat forces available to the Marine Air Ground Task Force.

FAIRWAY WOODS – MOS 0341

Mortarman: Mortarmen are responsible for the tactical deployment of the 60mm light mortar and the 81mm medium mortar. Mortarmen provide indirect fire in support of the rifle and LAR squads/platoons/companies and the infantry and LAR battalions. They are located in the weapons platoons of the rifle and LAR companies and the weapons company of the infantry battalion.

HYBRIDS – MOS 0317

Scout Sniper: The scout sniper is a Marine skilled in field craft and marksmanship who delivers long range, precision fire on selected targets from concealed positions in support of combat operations. They have a secondary mission of gathering information for intelligence purposes.
