v.

Sobral Invicta S.A.

Tyrone Craven, Lead Paralegal Specialist:

Opposer's consented motion filed February 16, 2018 to suspend proceedings for an additional 60 days is noted.

In the Board's order dated January 9, 2018, the parties were advised that further motions to extend may not be granted in the absence of detailed explanation of the progress the parties have made towards settlement. However, the February 16, 2018 motion does not include the required showing.

In view thereof, the motion to suspend is hereby denied without prejudice, and the parties are allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to submit a detailed report to establish good cause by reciting (1) the dates on which the parties have communicated since the last motion, (2) the method of each communication (e.g., telephone, email, in-person, etc.), (3) the general nature of each communication, (4) a list of issues that have been resolved, (5) a list of issues that remain to be resolved or remain for trial, and (6) a proposed timetable for resolution of the unresolved issues.

Upon submission and consideration of such a report, the parties' most recent consented motion to suspend may be granted, and other scheduling changes may be made.

In the meantime, trial dates remain as previously set in the Board's January 9, 2018 order.
