Opposition No. 91229837

McDonald's Corporation

v.

DSB Enterprises, Inc.

Elizabeth A. Dunn, Attorney (571-272-4267):

On December 23, 2016, the Board deferred consideration of Applicant's unauthorised and unserved motion to amend the opposed application to change the mark MCVESTS to MC VESTS; ordered Applicant to indicate the title and phone number of the individual which was signing filings on its behalf; and advised that future filings which lacked proof of service would be denied consideration. On December 28, 2016, the Board also required a disclaimer of the generic term VESTS.

On January 23, 2017, Opposer filed a consented motion to extend for 30 days Applicant's time to comply with the Board's order.¹ The motion is granted. See Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

Proceedings remain suspended pending Applicant's response to the Board's order.

¹ The parties are reminded that, effective January 14, 2017, the Board requires service by email of Board filings. Opposer's consented motion states that Applicant was served by first class mail. If the parties have stipulated to an alternate means of service, the better practice would be to so state in the certificate of service.
