MOTION TO EXTEND DATES IN OPPOSITION PROCEEDING

Opposer, by its attorney, hereby moves for a ninety (90) day extension of all dates, so that, when granted, the new schedule will be as follows:

Plaintiff's 30-Day Trial Period Ends:	November 1, 2018
Defendant's Pretrial Disclosures:	November 16, 2018
Defendant's 30-Day Trial Period Ends:	December 31, 2018
Plaintiff's Rebuttal Disclosures:	January 15, 2019
Rebuttal Period Closes:	February 14, 2019

Opposer requests this extension to determine if settlement can be reached. If settlement can be reached, there will be no need to proceed with the opposition.

The parties have exchanged settlement terms. The parties last communicated in late June. At that time, Applicant responded to Opposer's proposed settlement terms. Opposer continues to review those terms to determine settlement is possible.

More specifically, as advised in Opposer's last motion to extend the trial dates in these proceeding, Opposer forwarded proposed settlement terms to Applicant in February 2018. In mid-April, Applicant advised that it would respond to the proposed settlement shortly. Applicant did provide a counterproposal at the end of June. Given that Opposer has essentially had the counteroffer for only one month, Opposer requires additional time to review and consider that counteroffer.

In addition, the undersigned will be out of the office from August 20, 2018 to September 4, 2018.

Accordingly, for the reasons mentioned above and due to the undersigned's long planned absence, this 90-day extension is requested. This request is not made for the purposes of delay.

Applicant's counsel advised that they are not able to provide consent to this extension request.

Favorable action is requested.

Respectfully submitted,

PARK HOTEL MANAGEMENT PTE LTD.
