Applicant reserves the right to supplement or amend this list upon identification of other individuals through discovery or the development of the issues.

2. Documents and Tangible Things in Applicant's Custody, Possession, or Control

In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. 26(a)(1)(B), the following is a description by category of all documents and things now in the Applicant's possession, custody, or control that may be used in support of its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment:

1. Documents associated with Applicant's federal trademark application.
2. Documents reflecting Applicant's creation of its mark.
3. Documents reflecting Applicant's services and goods.
4. Documents reflecting the narrow use of Opposer's mark in connection with certain goods.
5. Documents reflecting third party use and registration of marks containing the word Rocket.

Applicant reserves the right to supplement or amend the list upon identification of other documents and tangible things through discovery or the development of the issues. These initial disclosures are based on the information reasonably available to Applicant as of the present date and are made without waiver of any objection to the use of such information for any purpose, including the right to object on the grounds of competency, privilege, relevancy, materiality, hearsay, or any other ground, in whole or in part, in any subsequent proceeding in this action or any other action. Applicant reserves the right to call any witness and represent any exhibit or item at trial not listed herein but determined through discovery or investigation to be relevant to the subject matter of this action.
