Opposers,

CONSENT MOTION TO EXTEND DEADLINE

Opposers Clemson University and Clemson IPTAY Club (“Opposers”) hereby respectfully move the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (“Board”) for an Order extending the time for Opposers to file their brief in response to Applicant’s Motion to Compel (15 TTABVUE) by fourteen (14) days. The requested extension will cause Opposers’ brief to be due on November 19, 2018.

The grounds for this Consent Motion are as follows:

The current deadline for Opposers to file their responsive brief is November 5, 2018. Lead counsel for Opposers, Jim Bagarazzi, is currently out of the office due to an illness and expects to be out for a number of days. The requested extension will merely provide Opposers with time to submit their responsive brief once Mr. Bagarazzi returns to the office.

Requests for extensions of time are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1). Since the instant request for an extension is being made before the initial time period has expired, the Board has the discretion to grant the request on a showing of "good cause." Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1)(A). The request is not for the purpose of delay, but for the grounds stated above and Applicant has provided its consent to this request. Accordingly, good cause exists for Opposers to be granted an extension of time in which to file their brief in response to Applicant's Motion to Compel (15 TTABVUE).

WHEREFORE, with good cause shown and not for the purpose of delay, Opposers respectfully request, with the consent of Applicant, that the Board enter an Order extending the time for Opposers to file their brief in response to Applicant's Motion to Compel (15 TTABVUE) by fourteen (14) days and order that Opposers' deadline is extended up to and including November 19, 2018.

Date: November 1, 2018

Respectfully submitted,
