Opposition No. 91240601

Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College

Pickin' Cotton Communications

THIS ORDER REPLACES THE ORDER ISSUED 9/18/18.

Elizabeth A. Dunn, Attorney (571-272-4267):

Inasmuch as the Board's September 17, 2018 order denied consolidation and reset dates, including the deadline for the discovery conference in each proceeding, the parties are ordered to discuss by phone or email how they wish to schedule the discovery conferences for the three proceedings in which they are involved, namely Opposition Nos. 91240593, 91240601, and 91240653. Based on the assigned attorney's schedule, the conferences must take place between October 1, 2018 and October 15, 2018 between 8:30-6PM EDT, except not on October 4, 2018, a day on which which the assigned attorney is not available. Inasmuch as Applicant has requested the Board's participation in each proceeding, Applicant is ordered to contact Opposer to propose dates for the individual or combined discovery conference, and then to call the assigned attorney at the number listed above by September 30, 2018.

The parties may schedule different conferences for the three proceedings, or may agree to one discovery conference in which the different pleadings for each proceeding will be discussed as well as any differences in the arrangements for disclosures, discovery and trial. If there is no agreement to consolidate the conferences, each conference will take place separately. The assigned attorney will issue an order with call-in information confirming the schedule for the conference(s).

Dates remain as set by the Board's September 17, 2018 order.
