Opposition No. 91246113

Argus Media Limited

v.

Argos Global Partner Services LTDA

Lawrence T. Stanley, Jr., Interlocutory Attorney:

On June 17, 2020, Applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 87546985, with Opposer's consent.

By the proposed amendment, Applicant seeks to amend the identification of goods in International Class in International Class 35 as follows (additions in bold):

From: Business management services, namely, liquidation of goods of others; Business consultancy; Business networking; Business consulting services in business leadership development and business management; Business development services in the fields of market study, business strategies, sales and customer services; Business organization consultancy

To: Business management services, namely, liquidation of goods of others; business consultancy in the field of supply chain management services; business networking; business consulting services in business leadership development and business management; business development services in the fields of market study, business strategies, sales and customer services, all for use in the supply chain management services industry; business organisation consultancy in the field of supply chain management services; none of the aforesaid services being in the nature of providing business information, business news and business consultancy in the field of commodities

The amendment is limiting in nature, as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a). Because Opposer consents thereto, the amendment is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

If the amendment resolves this proceeding, Opposer is allowed until thirty days from the date of this order to file a withdrawal of the opposition, failing which the opposition will go forward on the application as amended. See Trademark Rule 2.106(c).

If no response is filed, proceedings will be resumed and dates reset, as appropriate.

Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
