OPPOSER LIMITBREAKER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56, 37 C.F.R. §2.127, and TBMP § 528, opposer LimitBreaker (“LimitBreaker” or “Opposer”) respectfully moves that the Board enter summary judgment and sustain Opposition No. 91249169. Opposer’s motion is based on the likelihood of confusion between Opposer’s LIMITBREAKER mark and Evolve Awareness Apparel’s (“Applicant”) LIMITBREAKER mark and on Opposer’s prior rights in the LIMITBREAKER mark.

As shown by the facts and arguments detailed in the accompanying memorandum, the parties’ LIMITBREAKER marks are identical and the parties’ goods are essentially identical, so the primary issue to be determined by this motion is priority, and Opposer clearly prevails on the issue of priority. Accordingly, the Board should grant summary judgment in Opposer's favor and refuse registration of Application Serial No. 88/236,664.

I. INTRODUCTION

LimitBreaker (“Opposer”) is a sole proprietorship organized and existing under the laws of Canada. LimitBreaker uses its LIMITBREAKER trademark in connection with apparel, headwear, and accessories and has used its LIMITBREAKER mark since at least 2014. LimitBreaker owns Application No. 88/471,791 to register its LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with “Hats; Jackets; Shirts; Tank tops,” which it filed based on its use of the mark since 2014. LimitBreaker opposes Evolve Awareness Apparel’s (“Applicant”) application to register the LIMITBREAKER mark for use in connection with “Bottoms as clothing; Headbands for clothing; Headwear; Hoodies; Leggings; Sports bra; T-shirts; Tops as clothing” in International Class 25 (“Application No. 88/236,664”).

There is a likelihood of confusion between Opposer’s LIMITBREAKER mark and Applicant’s LIMITBREAKER mark, which are identical and are used or intended to be used in connection with essentially identical goods. In order to avoid likelihood of confusion, Applicant’s LIMITBREAKER mark must be refused registration in light of Opposer’s prior rights in the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with the same goods.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Jane Wu, the sole proprietor of Opposer, is a member of the dragonboat racing community, which is an international community of paddlers who compete in teams to race against other boats. Modern dragonboat racing is a very competitive sport, and many of the paddler train and compete throughout the year. Affidavit of Jane Wu (“Wu Decl.”) ¶1.

Within the paddling community, particularly at the international level, it is common practice for an individual from one team to trade jerseys with an individual from another team. Wu Decl. ¶2.

As a designer and an athlete, Ms. Wu often designed her own dragonboat racing team's jerseys, and her dissatisfaction with her experiences working with the limited selection of jersey suppliers motivated Ms. Wu to create a jersey design and production company. Ms. Wu founded LimitBreaker in 2014 as a customer teamwear provider, and LimitBreaker has evolved to become a more general team wear provider for fitness enthusiasts of all levels. Wu Decl. ¶¶ 3-5.

Opposer sells apparel, headwear, and bracelets in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark. Opposer has enjoyed commercial success in Canada, with over one hundred and fifty (150) team orders and over one hundred and seventy (170) individual orders for apparel, headwear, and accessories. Wu Decl. ¶¶ 7, 9; Wu Decl., Ex. A.

Opposer began selling to consumers in the United States in 2014 and has continued to sell to consumers in the United States through the present day. Since September 2014, Opposer has used the LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce in the United States with at last seventeen products. Wu Decl. ¶¶ 10-11; Wu Decl., Ex. B. For example, in April 2017, Opposer sold a gray LIMITBREAKER t-shirt to Carmon Wong, who lived in Las Vegas, Nevada. Carmon Wong also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, jackets, and bracelets, all of which were sold in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark. Wu Decl. ¶12; Wu Decl., Ex. C. As another example, in April 2015, Opposer sold a LIMITBREAKER jacket to Alexander Huynh, who lived in San Francisco, California. Alexander Huynh also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, short-sleeved shirts, and sleeveless tanks. Wu Decl. ¶13; Wu Decl., Ex. D. Opposer's sales of products in connection with its LIMITEBREAKER mark to Carmon Wong and Alexander Huynh are representative of sales made to other individuals in the United States prior to December 20, 2018. Wu Decl. ¶14.

In addition to sales of its products in the United States, Opposer strategically developed consumer recognition of its LIMITBREAKER brand through the practice of jersey trading within the paddling community. Many of Opposer's Canadian customers who compete at the international level have traded jerseys to individuals in the United States. Opposer has also traded jerseys to paddlers in the United States. Wu Decl. ¶15; Wu Decl., Ex. E. Through this practice, American paddling teams and individual athletes has grown familiar with Opposer's LIMITBREAKER mark. Wu Decl. ¶16.

On December 20, 2018, Evolve Awareness Apparel ("Applicant") filed Application Serial No. 88/236,664 to register the mark LIMITBREAKER in connection with "Bottoms as clothing; Headbands for clothing; Headwear; Hoodies; Leggings; Sports bra; T-shirts; Tops as clothing" in International Class 25. Declaration of Steven A. Abreu ("Abreu Decl.") ¶2. Applicant filed the application based on an intent to use the mark in commerce, giving the mark a priority date of December 20, 2018, based on constructive use under 15 U.S.C. § 1057(c).

On June 13, 2019, Opposer applied to register its LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with "Hats; Jackets; Shirts; Tank tops" in International Class 25 (Application Serial No. 88/471,791) based on its use of the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with the identified goods since at least as early as 2014. Abreu Decl. ¶3; Abreu Decl. On September 5, 2019, the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") issued a Suspension Notice, suspending Opposer's application, citing a likelihood of confusion with Applicant's pending Application No. 88/236,664. Abreu Decl. ¶4; Abreu Decl., Ex. B. Opposer filed a Notice of Opposition against Application No. 88/236,664 on June 27, 2019, on the basis of priority and likelihood of confusion. Abreu Decl. ¶5; Abreu Decl., Ex. C.

On November 8, 2019, Opposer sent a letter to Applicant, proffering evidence in good faith of Opposer's use of the LIMITBREAKER mark since at least 2014. Abreu Decl. ¶¶6; Abreu Decl., Ex. D. Applicant did not respond Opposer's letter of November 8, 2019, but on December 14, 2019, Applicant served discovery requests on Opposer. Opposer timely responded to the discovery requests. Opposer served discovery requests on Applicant on January 6, 2020. Applicant failed to timely respond to the discovery requests by the deadline of February 5, 2020, as required by 37 C.F.R. § 2.120 and TBMP § 403.03. Applicant served the overdue responses to Opposer's discovery requests on March 1, 2020. Discovery closed on March 4, 2020. Abreu Decl. ¶¶ 7-9.

III. ARGUMENT

Fed. R. Civ. P. 56, made applicable to Board proceedings by 37 C.F.R. §2.116(a), requires entry of "summary judgment if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Because the purpose of the motion is judicial economy, the summary judgment procedure is regarded as "a salutary method of disposition," and the Board does not hesitate to dispose of cases on summary judgment when appropriate. TBMP § 528.01 (citing Sweats Fashions, Inc. v. Pannill Knitting Co., 833 F.2d 1560, 1562 (Fed. Cir. 1987) (no relevant evidence to raise genuine issue of material fact)).

A. Opposer has standing.

Section 13(a) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), provides that an opposition may be filed by "[a]ny person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the principal register." The Federal Circuit has emphasized that there are two judicially created requirements for standing in inter partes cases: (1) a "real interest" in the proceedings; and (2) a reasonable basis for the belief of damage. Ritchie v. Simpson, 170 F.3d 1092, 1095 (Fed. Cir. 1999).

Opposer's real interest in this case and reasonable basis for the belief that it will be damaged by the resulting registration are demonstrated by the Suspension Notice issued by the USPTO in connection with Opposer's application to register its LIMITBREAKER trademark. If Application No. 88/236,664 proceeds to registration, Opposer's application will be denied under 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), despite Opposer's prior use of the mark.

B. There is a likelihood of confusion between the LIMITBREAKER marks.

Application of the likelihood of confusion factors, as laid out in In re E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 1361 (CCPA 1973), demonstrates a likelihood of confusion between the two LIMITBREAKER marks. The two key du Pont factor considerations are the similarity of the marks and the relatedness of the goods and services. TMEP § 1207.01 (citing Federated Foods, Inc. v. Fort Howard Paper Co., 544 F.2d 1098 (CCPA 1976)).

The marks are identical and the goods are essentially identical. Applicant seeks to register the mark LIMITBREAKER in connection with "Bottoms as clothing; Headbands for clothing; Headwear; Hoodies; Leggings; Sports bra; T-shirts; Tops as clothing," and Opposer uses its LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with apparel, headwear, and accessories. A likelihood of confusion as to any one product is sufficient to deny registration. See, e.g., Tuxedo Monopoly, Inc. v. Gen. Mills Fun Group, Inc., 648 F.2d 1335 (CCPA 1981).

A consideration of the relevant du Pont factors shows that Applicant's LIMITBREAKER mark is identical and confusingly similar to Opposer's LIMITBREAKER mark and that Applicant's claimed goods are identical or nearly identical to Opposer's goods.¹ Accordingly, there is a likelihood of confusion between Opposer's mark and Applicant's mark.

¹ The other du Pont factors are either neutral and favor neither party, or they favor Opposer. For example, although Opposer is currently unaware of any instances of actual confusion, the absence of evidence of actual confusion does not raise a genuine issue of material fact because

C. Opposer has priority in the LIMITBREAKER mark based on use.

“In order for a plaintiff to prevail on a claim of likelihood of confusion based on its ownership of common-law rights in a mark, the mark must be distinctive, inherently or otherwise, and plaintiff must show priority of use.” Giersch v. Scripps Networks, Inc., 90 U.S.P.Q.2d 1020, 1023 (TTAB 2009) (citing Otto Roth & Co. v. Universal Foods Corp., 640 F.2d 1317 (CCPA 1981)).

There is no doubt Opposer’s LIMITBREAKER mark is distinctive, as it is comprised of a compound word which is used in an arbitrary sense on apparel, headwear, and accessories. Additionally, the USPTO’s publication of Application No. 88/236,664 for the identical LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with the same goods further evidences the inherent distinctiveness of Opposer’s LIMITBREAKER mark. Whether Opposer has established a priority of use of its mark is determined by a preponderance of evidence. Hydro-Dynamics, Inc. v. George Putnam & Co, Inc., 811 F.2d 1470 (Fed. Cir. 1987). Opposer has provided evidence during the course of discovery that Opposer has used the LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce since at least 2014, and in any event, prior to December 20, 2018. Applicant has failed to produce any information or documents during the discovery process which even suggest, must less demonstrate, that Applicant is entitled to priority in the LIMITBREAKER mark.

1. Applicant’s priority date is December 20, 2018.

Applicant filed Application No. 88/236,664 based on an intent to use the mark in commerce under Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), on December 20, 2018. Under Section 7(c) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(c), Applicant’s application for the the test is likelihood of confusion, not actual confusion, and a showing of actual confusion is not required. See, e.g., Blansett Pharmacal Co., Inc. v. Carmrick Laboratories, Inc., 25 U.S.P.Q.2d 1473, 1476 (TTAB 1992) (“proof of actual confusion is not required”).

LIMITBREAKER mark is entitled to a priority date of December 20, 2018, based on constructive use as of the date of application.

In Applicant's Responses to Opposer's First Set of Interrogatories, in response to Interrogatory 7(g), which asked Applicant to identify the date when a purchaser first made a commitment to purchase a product sold by Applicant in connection with Applicant's LIMITBREAKER mark, Applicant stated, "Applicant first sold clothing related goods under Applicant's trademark on December 28, 2018." Abreu Decl. ¶10.

Accordingly, Applicant's earliest priority date is December 20, 2018, the date Applicant filed its application under Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act.

2. Opposer has used its LIMITBREAKER mark since at least 2014 and in any event, since prior to December 20, 2018.

Opposer began selling products to consumers in the United States in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark in 2014 and has continued to sell products to consumers in the United States in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark through the present day. Since September 2014, Opposer has used the LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce in the United States with at least seventeen products. Wu Decl. ¶¶ 10-11; Wu Decl., Ex. B.

For example, in April 2017, Opposer sold a gray LIMITBREAKER t-shirt to Carmon Wong, who lived in Las Vegas, Nevada. Carmon Wong also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, jackets, and bracelets, all of which were sold in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark. Wu Decl. ¶12; Wu Decl., Ex. C.

As another example, in April 2015, Opposer sold a LIMITBREAKER jacket to Alexander Huynh, who lived in San Francisco, California. Alexander Huynh also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, short-sleeved shirts, and sleeveless tanks. Wu Decl. ¶13; Wu Decl., Ex. D. Opposer's sales of products in connection with its LIMITEBREAKER mark to Carmon Wong and Alexander Huynh are representative of sales made to other individuals in the United States prior to December 20, 2018. Wu Decl. ¶14.

On June 13, 2019, Opposer filed its application to register the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with “Hats; Jackets; Shirts; Tank tops” in International Class 25 (Application Serial No. 88/471,791) based on its use of the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with the identified goods since at least as early as 2014. Abreu Decl. ¶3.

Opposer has used its LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with apparel, hats, and accessories since at least 2014, and in any event, since prior to December 20, 2018.

3. Opposer has established priority in the LIMITBREAKER mark based on its use in commerce of its LIMITBREAKER mark.

The Federal Circuit has held that no minimum threshold of sales is required to prove prior use in commerce of a trademark. Christian Faith Fellowship Church v. adidas AG, 841 F.3d 986 (Fed. Cir. 2016). In determining that the sale of two hats from the Christian Faith Fellowship Church to an out-of-state parishioner qualified as “use in commerce,” the Federal Circuit explained that the sale of the two hats to an out-of-state resident “is regulable by Congress under the Commerce Clause” and “falls comfortably within the bounds of [Congress’] powers already sketched for us by the Supreme Court.” Id. at 992-993. The court further noted that “the private sale of goods, particularly apparel, to an out-of-state resident...is ‘quintessentially economic.’” Id. at 993 (quoting Gonzalez v. Raich, 545 U.S. 1, 25 (2005)). The de minimis character of the individual sales was irrelevant, as the Church “did not need to present evidence of an actual and specific effect that its sale...had on interstate commerce.” Id. All that the court needed was “proof that the defendant’s conduct fell within a category of conduct that, in the aggregate, had the requisite effect.” Id. (quoting Taylor v. United States, 136 S. Ct. 2074, 2081 (2016)).

Opposer's sales of its products bearing the LIMITBREAKER mark from Canada into the United States fall squarely within the bounds of Congress' power under the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution. Because Opposer has used its LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce in the United States since at least as early as 2014, and, in any event, since prior to December 20, 2018, Opposer has prior rights in the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with apparel, headwear, and accessories. "Neither 'constructive notice' nor 'constructive use' undermines existing rights previously acquired by others under the common law rules." Restatement (Third) of Unfair Competition § 19, comment (e) (1995).

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Opposer respectfully requests that the Board sustain the opposition and refuse registration of the mark LIMITBREAKER shown in Application Serial No. 88/236,664. This motion is being filed prior to the commencement of Opposer's testimony period, and therefore is timely. 37 C.F.R. § 2.127(e) (1); TBMP § 528.02. Opposer requests that all proceedings not germane to this summary judgment motion be suspended until the disposition of this motion by the Board. 37 C.F.R. § 2.127(d); TBMP § 528.03.

AFFIDAVIT OF JANE WU IN SUPPORT OF LIMITBREAKER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Affidavit of Jane Wu

I, Jane Wu, sole proprietor of LimitBreaker, a sole proprietorship organized and existing under the laws of Canada, having a principal place of business at 72 Malamute Crescent, Scarborough, Ontario M1T2C7, Canada, hereby make the following declaration:

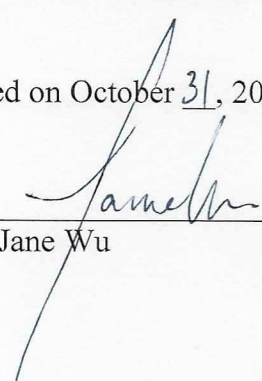

1. I am a member of the dragonboat racing community, which is an international community of paddlers who compete in teams to race against other boats. Modern dragonboat racing is a very competitive sport, and many of the paddlers train and compete throughout the year.
2. Within the paddling community, particularly at the international level, it is common practice for an individual from one team to trade jerseys with an individual from another team.
3. As a designer and an athlete, I often designed and organized my own dragonboat racing team's jerseys, and I grew frustrated with some of the difficulties of working with a limited selection of jersey suppliers. Oftentimes, the suppliers failed to meet my expectations, and the final jerseys were not aesthetically or functionally what my team needed.
4. My dissatisfying experiences with the available jersey suppliers motivated me to create a jersey design and production company that would improve upon what was available in the market and allow me to deliver products and customer service that would meet and exceed the expectations of athletes and teams, rather than disappoint and frustrate them.
5. I founded LimitBreaker in 2014 as a custom teamwear provider, and it evolved to become a more general team wear provider with the introduction of our line of LB products. Our target audience includes fitness enthusiasts of all levels.

6. As the sole proprietor of LimitBreaker, I am responsible for the sales of all products in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark, which is the subject of U.S. Application Serial No. 88/471,791.
7. LimitBreaker sells apparel, headwear, and bracelets in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark.
8. Because I initially founded LimitBreaker as a custom teamwear provider, many of LimitBreaker's early sales were to athletes and teams within the paddling community.
9. LimitBreaker has enjoyed commercial success in Canada, with over one hundred and fifty (150) team orders and over one hundred and seventy (170) individual orders for apparel, headwear, and accessories. See Exhibit A.
10. LimitBreaker began selling to individuals in the United States in 2014 and has continued to sell to individuals in the United States through the present day.
11. Since September 2014, LimitBreaker has used the LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce in the United States in connection with at least seventeen products. See Exhibit B.
12. For example, in April 2017, LimitBreaker sold a gray LIMITBREAKER t-shirt to Carmon Wong, who lives in Las Vegas, Nevada. Carmon Wong also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, jackets, and bracelets, all of which LimitBreaker sold in connection with its LIMITBREAKER mark. See Exhibit C.
13. As another example, in April 2015, LimitBreaker sold a LIMITBREAKER jacket to Alexander Huynh, who lives in San Francisco, California. Alexander Huynh also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, short-sleeved shirts, and sleeveless tanks. See Exhibit D.

14. LimitBreaker's sales of products in connection with its LIMITBREAKER mark to Carmon Wong and Alexander Huynh are representative of sales made to other individuals in the United States prior to December 20, 2018.
15. In addition to sales into the United States prior to December 20, 2018, LimitBreaker strategically developed consumer recognition of its LIMITBREAKER brand through the practice of jersey trading within the paddling community. Many of LimitBreaker's Canadian customers who compete at the international level have traded jerseys to individuals in the United States. LimitBreaker has also traded jerseys to paddlers in the United States. See Exhibit E.
16. Through this practice, American paddling teams and individual athletes have grown familiar with LimitBreaker and its LIMITBREAKER mark.
17. LimitBreaker is currently engaged in discussions with numerous paddling teams based in the United States to design and to produce custom team jerseys for the upcoming season as a result of LimitBreaker's strategic brand development.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and accurate.

Published: April 30, 2019

LIMITBREAKER,

Opposer,

v.

EVOLVE AWARENESS APPAREL, LLC,

Applicant.

Opposition No. 91249169

DECLARATION OF STEVEN A. ABREU IN SUPPORT OF LIMITBREAKER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

I, Steven A. Abreu, declare as follows:

1. I am a member of the Massachusetts bar, and I am a partner at the Boston law firm of Sunstein LLP, counsel for the opposer, LimitBreaker. I have personal knowledge of the matters below.

2. In its Answer to LimitBreaker's Notice of Opposition, the applicant, Evolve Awareness Apparel, admits that on December 20, 2018, it filed Application Serial No. 88/236,664 to register the mark LIMITBREAKER in connection with "Bottoms as clothing; Headbands for clothing; Headwear; Hoodies; Leggings; Sports bra; T-shirts; Tops as clothing" in International Class 25 based on its intent to use the mark in commerce. I attach as Exhibit A a copy of Evolve Awareness Apparel's Answer to LimitBreaker's Notice of Opposition.

3. On June 13, 2019, LimitBreaker filed Application Serial No. 88/471,791 to register its LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with "Hats; Jackets; Shirts; Tank tops" in International Class 25 based on its use of the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with the identified goods since at least as early as 2014.

4. On September 5, 2019, the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") issued a Suspension Notice, suspending LimitBreaker's application, citing a likelihood of confusion with Evolve Awareness Apparel's pending Application No. 88/236,664. I attach as Exhibit B a copy of the Suspension Notice.

5. LimitBreaker filed a Notice of Opposition against Application No. 88/236,664 to initiate this proceeding on June 27, 2019, on the basis of priority and likelihood of confusion. I attach as Exhibit C a copy of the Notice of Opposition.

6. On November 8, 2019, LimitBreaker sent a letter to Evolve Awareness Apparel, proffering evidence in good faith of LimitBreaker's use of the LIMITBREAKER mark since at least 2014. I attach as Exhibit D a copy of the November 8, 2019 letter from LimitBreaker to Evolve Awareness Apparel.

7. Evolve Awareness Apparel did not respond LimitBreaker's letter of November 8, 2019.

8. On December 14, 2019, Evolve Awareness Apparel served discovery requests on LimitBreaker. LimitBreaker timely responded to Evolve Awareness Apparel's discovery requests on January 13, 2020.

9. LimitBreaker served discovery requests on Evolve Awareness Apparel on January

6, 2020. Evolve Awareness Apparel failed to respond to the discovery requests by the deadline of February 5, 2020, as required by 37 C.F.R. § 2.120 and TBMP § 403.03. Evolve Awareness Apparel served responses to LimitBreaker's discovery requests on March 1, 2020. Discovery closed on March 4, 2020.

10. In Evolve Awareness Apparel's responses to Opposer's First Set of Interrogatories, in response to Interrogatory 7(g), which asked Evolve Awareness Apparel to identify the date when a purchaser first made a commitment to purchase a product sold by Evolve Awareness Apparel in connection with Evolve Awareness Apparel's LIMITBREAKER mark, Evolve Awareness Apparel stated, "Applicant first sold clothing related goods under Applicant's trademark on December 28, 2018."

Signed under the penalties of perjury this seventeenth day of April 2020.

Sir or Madam:

Limitbreaker (“Opposer”), a sole proprietorship organized and existing under the laws of Canada, of and by its sole proprietor, Jane Wu, having a principal place of business at 72 Malamute Crescent, Scarborough, Canada M1T2C7, believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 88/236,664, filed on December 20, 2018, and thus hereby opposes said application on the grounds that:

1. Application Serial No. 88/236,664 (the “Application”), filed by Evolve Awareness Apparel, LLC on December 20, 2018, seeks registration of the mark LIMITBREAKER in connection with “Bottoms as clothing; Headbands for clothing; Headwear; Hoodies; Leggings; Sports bra; T-shirts; Tops as clothing” in International Class 25.

2. Application Serial No. 88/236,664, filed by Evolve Awareness Apparel, LLC on December 20, 2018, is based on intent to use the mark in commerce.
3. Opposer sells apparel, headwear, and bracelets under the mark LIMITBREAKER to customers, which include fitness enthusiasts of all kinds, in the United States and Canada.
4. Opposer owns an application for the mark LIMITBREAKER for use in connection with “Hats; Jackets; Shirts; Tank tops” in International Class 25, filed on June 13, 2019, based on use in commerce since at least as early as 2014 and assigned Serial No. 88/471,791.
5. Opposer has used and continues to use its LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with apparel, headwear, and related products since at least as early as 2014.
6. The goods described in the Application are identical and/or closely similar to the goods that Opposer provides and plans to provide in connection with its LIMITBREAKER mark and are likely to be sold through related marketing channels to the same class of purchasers.
7. Through Opposer’s promotional and sales activities, Opposer’s LIMITBREAKER mark identifies Opposer as the source of the relevant goods to the relevant segment of purchasers and embodies goodwill and industry recognition.
8. Applicant’s LIMITBREAKER mark is confusingly similar to Opposer’s LIMITBREAKER mark.
9. Applicant’s use and/or registration of the LIMITBREAKER mark will cause purchasers, prospective purchasers, users and others to be confused, mistaken or deceived into the belief, contrary to fact, that Applicant’s goods emanate from or are sponsored or approved by Opposer or are related to Opposer’s goods, thereby damaging Opposer. Applicant’s LIMITBREAKER mark is thus unregistrable under §§ 2(d) and 13 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1052(d) and 1063.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that the present opposition be sustained and registration of the LIMITBREAKER mark sought by Applicant be refused.

Re: Opposition No. 91249169
Our File 4619/5001

Dear Mr. Sturman:

We write in our capacity as representatives of Limitbreaker to proffer evidence in good faith demonstrating that our client will be able to prove that it has rights prior to your client in the LIMITBREAKER trademark.

As we discussed during the discovery conference on September 6, 2019, the parties' LIMITBREAKER marks are identical, and the goods and services identified in the parties' respective applications are essentially the same. Our client applied to register LIMITBREAKER based on its use of the mark in commerce since 2014. Our client's use in commerce predates your client's use or filing date, and therefore, we are confident we will succeed in the opposition.

Attached is a sworn affidavit from Ms. Wu, sole proprietor of Limitbreaker, which explains her business, including her involvement with the paddling community, the trading customs of the paddling community, and Limitbreaker's sales of goods in connection with its LIMITBREAKER mark. We believe the evidence demonstrates that our client has prior rights in the LIMITBREAKER mark based on its use of the mark in commerce.

The Federal Circuit has held that no minimum threshold of sales is required to prove prior use in commerce of a trademark. Christian Faith Fellowship Church v. adidas AG, 841 F.3d 986 (Fed. Cir. 2016). In determining that the sale of two hats from the Christian Faith Fellowship Church to an out-of-state parishioner qualified as "use in commerce," the Federal Circuit explained that the sale of the two hats to an out-of-state resident "is regulable by Congress under the Commerce Clause” and “falls comfortably within the bounds of [Congress’] powers already sketched for us by the Supreme Court.” Id. at 992-993. The court further noted that “the private sale of goods, particularly apparel, to an out-of-state resident...is ‘quintessentially economic.’” Id. at 993 (quoting Gonzalez v. Raich, 545 U.S. 1, 25 (2005)). The de minimis character of the individual sales was irrelevant, as the Church “did not need to present evidence of an actual and specific effect that its sale...had on interstate commerce.” Id. All that the court needed was “proof that the defendant’s conduct fell within a category of conduct that, in the aggregate, had the requisite effect.” Id. (quoting Taylor v. United States, 136 S. Ct. 2074, 2081 (2016)).

Our client’s sales of its products bearing the LIMITBREAKER mark from Canada into the United States fall squarely within the bounds of Congress’ power under the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution. Because Limitbreaker has used its LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce in the United States since at least as early as 2014, and, in any event, prior to December 20, 2018, Limitbreaker has prior rights in the LIMITBREAKER mark in connection with apparel, headwear, and accessories.

This letter is not intended to be a full recitation of all outstanding facts and legal issues. Nothing in this letter is meant or should be construed to waive or to limit any of Limitbreaker’s rights, claims, or defenses, all of which are expressly reserved.

Upon consideration of the evidence presented, we renew our request that your client expressly abandon its application.

Sincerely,

Katherine W. Soule

Affidavit of Jane Wu

I, Jane Wu, sole proprietor of LimitBreaker, a sole proprietorship organized and existing under the laws of Canada, having a principal place of business at 72 Malamute Crescent, Scarborough, Ontario M1T2C7, Canada, hereby make the following declaration:

1. I am a member of the dragonboat racing community, which is an international community of paddlers who compete in teams to race against other boats. Modern dragonboat racing is a very competitive sport, and many of the paddlers train and compete throughout the year.
2. Within the paddling community, particularly at the international level, it is common practice for an individual from one team to trade jerseys with an individual from another team.
3. As a designer and an athlete, I often designed and organized my own dragonboat racing team's jerseys, and I grew frustrated with some of the difficulties of working with a limited selection of jersey suppliers. Oftentimes, the suppliers failed to meet my expectations, and the final jerseys were not aesthetically or functionally what my team needed.
4. My dissatisfying experiences with the available jersey suppliers motivated me to create a jersey design and production company that would improve upon what was available in the market and allow me to deliver products and customer service that would meet and exceed the expectations of athletes and teams, rather than disappoint and frustrate them.
5. I founded LimitBreaker in 2014 as a custom teamwear provider, and it evolved to become a more general team wear provider with the introduction of our line of LB products. Our target audience includes fitness enthusiasts of all levels.

6. As the sole proprietor of LimitBreaker, I am responsible for the sales of all products in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark, which is the subject of U.S. Application Serial No. 88/471,791.
7. LimitBreaker sells apparel, headwear, and bracelets in connection with the LIMITBREAKER mark.
8. Because I initially founded LimitBreaker as a custom teamwear provider, many of LimitBreaker's early sales were to athletes and teams within the paddling community.
9. LimitBreaker has enjoyed commercial success in Canada, with over one hundred and fifty (150) team orders and over one hundred and seventy (170) individual orders for apparel, headwear, and accessories. See Exhibit A.
10. LimitBreaker began selling to individuals in the United States in 2014 and has continued to sell to individuals in the United States through the present day.
11. Since September 2014, LimitBreaker has used the LIMITBREAKER mark in commerce in the United States in connection with at least seventeen products. See Exhibit B.
12. For example, in April 2017, LimitBreaker sold a gray LIMITBREAKER t-shirt to Carmon Wong, who lives in Las Vegas, Nevada. Carmon Wong also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, jackets, and bracelets, all of which LimitBreaker sold in connection with its LIMITBREAKER mark. See Exhibit C.
13. As another example, in April 2015, LimitBreaker sold a LIMITBREAKER jacket to Alexander Huynh, who lives in San Francisco, California. Alexander Huynh also purchased numerous other LIMITBREAKER products, such as hats, short-sleeved shirts, and sleeveless tanks. See Exhibit D.

14. LimitBreaker's sales of products in connection with its LIMITBREAKER mark to Carmon Wong and Alexander Huynh are representative of sales made to other individuals in the United States prior to December 20, 2018.
15. In addition to sales into the United States prior to December 20, 2018, LimitBreaker strategically developed consumer recognition of its LIMITBREAKER brand through the practice of jersey trading within the paddling community. Many of LimitBreaker's Canadian customers who compete at the international level have traded jerseys to individuals in the United States. LimitBreaker has also traded jerseys to paddlers in the United States. See Exhibit E.
16. Through this practice, American paddling teams and individual athletes have grown familiar with LimitBreaker and its LIMITBREAKER mark.
17. LimitBreaker is currently engaged in discussions with numerous paddling teams based in the United States to design and to produce custom team jerseys for the upcoming season as a result of LimitBreaker's strategic brand development.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and accurate.
