As Opposer's right to use the SHARP marks shown in Registration Nos. 2887128, 3486602 and 3684574 have become incontestable, those registrations are conclusive evidence of Opposer's right to use said marks in commerce on the goods specified in the registration, as provided by §§ 15 and 33(b) of the Trademark Act of 1946.

10. The dominant portion of Applicant’s mark SHARP is identical to Opposer’s famous mark such that the marks are visually and phonetically similar and create strikingly similar commercial impressions. Applicant has incorporated Opposer’s famous SHARP mark as the initial, dominant portion of the mark SHARP HP.

11. Opposer’s goods promoted and sold under its SHARP name and marks and Applicant’s goods intended to be sold or offered under the mark SHARP HP are similar and closely related products and/or complementary products which are or are likely to be offered through the same or overlapping channels of trade to the same or overlapping classes of purchasers so that purchasers, prospective purchasers, users and others are likely to be confused, mistaken or deceived into the belief, contrary to fact, that Applicant’s goods offered under the mark SHARP HP emanate from and/or are in some way sponsored or approved by Opposer or are otherwise related to Opposer’s goods offered under the SHARP marks, thereby damaging Opposer.

12. In view of the foregoing, the registration of the mark SHARP HP by Applicant is likely to injure and/or dilute the strength of Opposer’s name and mark SHARP and its related goodwill.

13. Applicant is not lawfully entitled to the registration which it seeks for the reason, inter alia, that the mark SHARP HP as used for Applicant’s goods so resembles Opposer’s previously used and registered name and mark SHARP as to be likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake or to deceive within the meaning of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, thereby damaging Opposer.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that the present opposition be sustained and that registration of the mark SHARP HP sought by Applicant be refused.

The requisite filing fee for this Notice of Opposition is submitted herewith.
