Good Afternoon,

My name is Gabriel Vincent Dupree and below is my last communication with Guess? IP Holder L.P.. At this timing of this submission I have made contact with the Interlucutory Attorney and Paralegal assigned to case 91252082 by voicemail requesting their involvement. I am requesting an Accelerated Case Resolution. I believe the efficiency of obtaining the Board's determination is in the best interest.

Respectfully submitted,
Gabriel Vincent Dupree

PURPOSES ONLY FRE 408; Guess? IP Holder L.P. v.
Gabriel Vincent Dupree; Opposition No. 91252082;
Trademark Inverted Triangle Design; Serial No. 88/352,959 in Int'l Class 25 in the U.S.; LRRC Ref. 405063-04032

Good Morning,

It's extremely unusual I never received any formal letter requesting anything regarding my trademark, nevertheless if the lack of retribution offered now is similar to what would have been expected than it also would have been in vain. Undoubtedly upset we could not reach an agreement that would suffice both parties. I would also like to suggest the possibility of both parties sign a Co-Existence Agreement that would allow both parties continued use of their respective trademarks? However at this time, if no resolution is in sight I will request an Accelerated Case Resolution (ACR). I believe the efficiency of obtaining the Board's determination is in the best interest. Below I can attach information regarding. Again, I am disappointed as I believed a common ground was surely obtainable. I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Gabriel V. Dupree

ACCELERATED CASE RESOLUTION (ACR)

During their conference, the parties are to discuss whether they wish to seek mediation or arbitration, and whether they can stipulate to the Board's Accelerated Case Resolution (ACR) process for a more efficient and cost-effective means of obtaining the Board's determination of the proceeding. For details, and examples of ACR proceedings, see TBMP § 528, and the Board's webpage: <http://www.uspto.gov/ttab>.
