Alleged Date of

First Use : ITU

As grounds for opposition, it is alleged:

1. For over 30 years, ROL Aktiebolag, and its affiliated companies (collectively “ROL”) have developed and supplied products and solutions used in store and offices around the world.

2. Since a date well prior to the filing date of Applicant’s Application, ROL has designed, developed, marketed, manufactured, promoted, offered, provided and sold a variety of products and services in connection with the names and marks ROL and ROL containing marks (collectively, “the ROL Marks”) throughout the United States and the world.

3. Among the goods and services that ROL has offered or is offering in connection with the ROL Marks are business, administrative, analysis, cloud, intelligent office, software, operations, computer and information services, design services, installation, repair, drafting and rental services, research and development services and technical support services, office and business equipment, instruments, parts, fitting and accessories, hardware, apparatus and instruments, software and applications; (hereinafter collectively referred to as “ROL’s Goods and Services”).

4. ROL is the owner of and relies on United States Trademark Registration No. 5557667 (“ROL’s Registration”) for the mark ROL for Metal fittings for shelving and display units, namely, racks, brackets and panels; metal boxes for storage purposes; baskets of common metal; non-luminous and non-mechanical signs; fittings of metal for furniture; metal hooks in Class 6; Computers; computer software, namely, computer software for collecting, processing and reporting data related to use of workplace resources and computer software for optimization of use of workplace resources; computer software for creating searchable databases of information and data; computer software in the fields of architecture and construction planning for operation and maintenance of buildings; computer software in the field of architecture for construction planning and operation and maintenance of buildings; computer software for booking office facilities including premises, desks, chairs, computers, projectors, writing boards and printers; apparatus and instruments for conducting, switching, transforming, accumulating, regulating or controlling electric current; electronic data processing apparatus and computers relating to collecting, processing, reproduction and production of sound, data, information, multimedia, images and video in buildings, interior design, offices and public spaces; electrical sensors for sensing the presence of individuals by detecting body temperature; motion sensors; detectors, namely, motion detectors, smoke detectors; accessories and components of all the above mentioned goods, namely, electronic components for the foregoing detectors and sensors in Class 9; Furniture; furniture for shops; office furniture, including tables, desks, conference tables, sit/stand desks, table tops, base frames for tables including height-adjustable base frames, seating furniture including chairs, armchairs, sofas and desk chairs, pedestals, cupboards, bookcases, furniture shelves; furniture, namely, screens, benches, mirrors; furniture, namely, information and advertising display units of metal; furniture parts and furniture fittings, not of metal in Class 20; Administrative processing of purchase orders ; computerized file management; business data analysis, research and information services; information services relating to business matters; providing business information relating to data processing; business information services provided on-line from a computer database or the internet; providing benchmarking in the field of facility management; providing evaluations, analysis and reports relating to business matters and business data; statistical analysis and reporting services for business purposes; retail store services in relation to computers, computer software, furniture including office furniture and furniture for hotels, restaurants and public spaces, shop fittings in Class 35; and Cloud computing, namely, providing virtual computer systems and virtual computer environments through cloud computing, cloud computing services, namely, providing electronic storage of data; providing temporary use of online non-downloadable computer software in the fields of interior design, architecture and construction drafting, for running, maintenance and operation of buildings, premises and workplaces; providing temporary use of online non-downloadable computer software in the fields of interior design and architecture for construction drafting, running, maintenance and operation of buildings, premises and workplaces; design and development of computer software; installation, repair, and rental of computer software; design of furniture, interiors, shops, office and conference furnishings, office and conference spaces and of interiors for hotels, restaurants and public spaces; computer services in the nature of creating and designing of customized websites for others with user-defined or user-specified information in the fields of interior design, architecture, construction drafting and for operation of buildings, premises and workplaces in Class 42, which was registered on the Principal Register on September 11, 2018. ROL's Registration is based on an application filed in the PTO on May 8, 2017, with a priority filing date of November 9, 2016. Thus, the dates of application and registration of the mark shown in ROL's Registration are both prior to the date Applicant filed Applicant's Application. True and correct copies of the specifics of ROL's Registration obtained from the PTO's TSDR and Assignment databases are attached hereto and made of record.

5. ROL's Registration is valid, subsisting, unrevoked and uncanceled; as such it constitute prima facie evidence of the validity of the registered mark and of the registration thereof, and of ROL's ownership of the mark shown therein and/or ROL's exclusive right to use the mark in commerce in connection with the goods and services named therein, without condition or limitation. ROL's Registration also constitute notice to Applicant of ROL's claim of ownership of the mark shown therein; all as provided in Section 7(b), 22 and 33(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended.

6. ROL's Registration is derived from an application filed in the PTO on a date prior to the filing of Applicant's Application. ROL's Registration is valid and subsisting. In view of the substantial similarity of the respective marks and the related nature of the goods and services of the respective parties, it is alleged that the mark in Applicant's Application so resembles the registered mark in ROL's Registration, previously used in the United States and not abandoned, as to be likely to cause confusion or to cause mistake or deceive.

7. ROL's use of the ROL Marks has been valid and continuous since a date well before the filing date of Applicant's Application and has not been abandoned. The ROL Marks are symbolic of extensive goodwill and consumer recognition built up by ROL through time and effort in advertising and promotion.

8. In view of the substantial similarity of the respective marks and the related nature of the goods and services of the respective parties, it is alleged that the mark in Applicant's Application so resembles the ROL Marks previously used in the United States, and not abandoned, as to be likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or deceive.

9. Since a date well prior to the filing dates of Applicant's Application, ROL has consistently used the ROL Marks in interstate commerce. The ROL Marks, by virtue of substantial use, have acquired great value as an indicator of ROL and ROL's Goods and Services, and distinguish them from the goods and services of others.

10. Since a date well prior to the filing dates of Applicant's Application, ROL has used the ROL Marks in connection with the sale and promotion of ROL's Goods and Services. Such use has been valid and continuous, and has not been abandoned.

11. If Applicant is allowed to register the mark in Applicant's Application, Applicant's corresponding prima facie exclusive right to use the mark ROL nationwide will conflict with ROL's lawful and prima facie exclusive right to use the ROL Marks nationwide.

12. Since a date well prior to the filing date of Applicant's Application, ROL has used the ROL Marks. Such use has been valid and continuous, and has not been abandoned. As a result of this use, well prior to the filing date of Applicant's Application, the relevant class of the public has come to associate ROL with the ROL Marks.

13. ROL has invested substantial amounts of time, effort and money in the ROL Marks throughout the United States. By reason of ROL's widespread and continuous use of the ROL Marks, in addition to the protection afforded by ROL's Registration, ROL has extensive, non-registered statutory and common law rights in the ROL Marks.

14. ROL, through sales, advertising and promotion of ROL's Goods and Services under the ROL Marks, since a date prior to the filing date of Applicant's Application, has built up at great expense and effort, valuable goodwill symbolized by the ROL Marks.

15. ROL's Goods and Services have received widespread success.

16. In view of ROL's prior rights in the ROL Marks, Applicant is not entitled to registration of a ROL containing or consisting mark for services in Classes 35 and 42 pursuant to Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

17. In view of ROL's prior rights in the ROL Marks, Applicant is not entitled to registration of the mark in Applicant's Application for services in Classes 35 and 42 pursuant to Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

18. The mark in Applicant's Application is likely to cause confusion with the registered mark identified above. Additionally, Applicant seeks registration for services that are closely related to some of ROL's Goods and Services. The mark in Applicant's Application and use thereof is likely to cause confusion in, or to cause mistake by, or to deceive the trade and purchasing public into believing that Applicant's services originate with ROL or are otherwise authorized, licensed or sponsored by ROL.

19. The term ROL in Applicant's Application is likely to cause confusion with the registered mark identified above. Additionally, Applicant seeks registration for services closely related to ROL's Goods and Services, as well as the goods and services identified in ROL's Registration, detailed above. As such, the mark ROL is used on or in connection with the services identified in Applicant's Application, they are likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive within the meaning of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

20. The term ROL in Applicant's Application is likely to cause confusion with the registered marks identified above. Additionally, Applicant seeks registration for services closely related to ROL's Goods and Services, as well as the goods and services identified in ROL's Registration, detailed above. As such, when the mark in Applicant's Application is used on or in connection with the services identified in Applicant's Application, it is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive within the meaning of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

21. The mark in Applicant's Application is likely to cause confusion with the registered mark identified above. Additionally, Applicant seeks registration for services that are closely related to some of ROL's Goods and Services, as well as the goods identified in ROL's Registration, detailed above. The mark in Applicant's Application and use thereof is likely to cause confusion in, or to cause mistake by, or to deceive the trade and purchasing public into believing that Applicant's services originate with ROL or are otherwise authorized, licensed or sponsored by ROL.

22. The term ROL in Applicant's Application is likely to cause confusion with the ROL

Marks. Applicant seeks registration for services closely related to ROL's Goods and Services. As such, when ROL containing or consisting marks are used in connection with the services identified in Applicant's Application, it is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive within the meaning of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

23. The mark in Applicant's Application is likely to cause confusion with the ROL Marks. Additionally, Applicant seeks registration for services closely related to ROL's Goods and Services. The mark in Applicant's Application and use thereof is likely to cause confusion in, or to cause mistake by, or to deceive the trade and purchasing public into believing that Applicant's services originate with ROL or are otherwise authorized, licensed or sponsored by ROL.

24. Through extensive use and advertising of the ROL Marks, they have become famous for ROL's Goods and Services since a date well prior to the filing dates of Applicant's Application.

25. Through extensive use and advertising of the mark in ROL's Registration, the mark has become famous for ROL's Goods and Services since a date well prior to the filing dates of Applicant's Application.

26. Through extensive use and advertising of the mark in ROL's Registration, the ROL Marks have become famous for ROL's Goods and Services since a date well prior to the filing dates of Applicant's Application.
