9. RELX had used and registered its RELX Mark prior to the time Applicant filed the Applications on August 29, 2019.

10. Opposer's RELX Mark became famous before the filing date of the Applications.

11. The RELXNANO and RELXPOD Applications were published for opposition in the Trademark Official Gazette on November 19, 2019, and the RELXI Application was published on November 26, 2019.

12. Applicant is not affiliated with or sponsored by RELX, and Applicant has never been authorized by Opposer to use the RELX Mark.

13. Applicant's proposed marks RELXNANO, RELXPOD, and RELXI incorporate Opposer's famous RELX Mark as their shared dominant element. Moreover, the Applications cover exhibition services that overlap with Opposer's exhibition services, as well as products and services researched and analyzed by the medical and legal fields, two of the primary segments of Opposer's RELX business. As such, consumers are likely to be confused, mistaken or deceived into the belief, contrary to fact, that the Applicant's RELX-incorporating marks covering Class 9 goods and Class 35 services emanate from and/or are in some way sponsored or approved by RELX, and/or that Applicant is somehow affiliated with RELX, thereby damaging Opposer.

COUNT I

Likelihood of Confusion

14. Opposer incorporates each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-13 of this Notice of Opposition as though fully set forth herein.

15. Because of the high degree of similarity between the parties' respective marks and their coverage, Applicant's use of the marks RELXNANO, RELXPOD, AND RELXI in Class 9 and Class 35 is likely to cause consumer confusion, mistake or deception, violating Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

COUNT II

Trademark Dilution

16. Opposer incorporates each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-13 of this Notice of Opposition as though fully set forth herein.

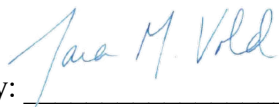

17. Opposer's RELX Mark has become famous in accordance with the standard set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

18. Applicant filed the Applications after the Opposer's RELX Mark became famous.

19. Because of the fame of the RELX Mark, and the fact that Applicant's proposed marks RELXNANO, RELXPOD, AND RELXI all incorporate Opposer's RELX Mark in its entirety as the dominant element, Applicant's use of the proposed marks in Class 9 and Class 35 is likely to dilute or tarnish the distinctiveness of the RELX Mark and/or will harm the reputation of Opposer's famous RELX Mark, violating Section 43(c) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO.
