Opposition No. 91263874

InFocus Corporation

Exxon Mobil Corporation

Denise M. DelGizzi
Chief Clerk of the Board:

Intent-to-use application Serial No. 88620252 is involved in the instant pending opposition proceeding, and terminated opposition proceeding no. 91263803. It has come to the Board's attention that a notice of allowance was inadvertently issued after proceeding no. 91263803 was terminated and the application was sent on to issuance of a notice of allowance.

A notice of allowance is considered inadvertently issued when an application that is involved in multiple proceedings is allowed to move forward to issuance prior to the time that all pending proceedings are finally adjudicated.

Inasmuch as the Board is without the authority to cancel an inadvertently issued notice of allowance, the matter is referred to the Intent-to-Use Unit of the Office to cancel the inadvertently issued notice of allowance.

Opposition No. 91263874

Proceedings remain suspended in accordance to the Board's July 1, 2022 order.
