MOTION WITH CONSENT TO EXTEND OPPOSER’S TIME TO RESPOND TO APPLICANT’S MOTION TO COMPEL OPPOSER’S INITIAL DISCLOSURES

Opposer, Jemie B.V., with the consent of Applicant, hereby moves the Board for a one (1) week extension of Opposer’s deadline to respond to Applicant’s Motion to Compel Initial Disclosures (15 TTABVUE).

Opposer submits that good cause exists to grant this motion. In particular, as of October 11, 2022, Opposer has served upon Applicant its Initial Disclosures, rendering the subject motion moot. Indeed, on October 11, 2022, Opposer’s attorney asked Applicant’s attorney if Applicant would now withdraw its motion to compel in light of receiving Opposer’s Initial Disclosures. Opposer has not yet heard back from Applicant concerning this request. If this motion is granted, it will allow sufficient time for Applicant to potentially withdraw his motion and thereby avoid an unnecessary response filing by Opposer and consideration of the motion to compel by the Board.

Applicant’s attorney consented to this motion on October 10, 2022, in a telephone conversation with Opposer’s counsel.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: October 11, 2022
