NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Gradus Group, LLC ("Opposer" or "Gradus"), a New York limited liability company having a place of business at 375 West 35th Street, New York, New York 10001, believes it will be damaged by registration of the mark REVOTECH as shown in United States Application Serial No. 90-501820 and hereby opposes registration of the same under the provisions of Section 13 of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §1063 and Trademark Rule 2.101.

As grounds for opposition, Opposer alleges as follows:

1. On information and belief, Shenzhen Huayu Shijie Technology Co., Ltd., a limited liability company organized under the laws of China (“Applicant”) is the owner of United States Trademark Application No. 90-501820 seeking to register REVOTECH for “Cameras; Baby monitors; Camera hardware systems for IP (Internet protocol) video surveillance; Camera mounts and supports; Closed circuit TV systems for security and surveillance, namely, cameras, switchers, monitors, microphones, and recorders; Computer network switches; Digital video recorders; IP (Internet protocol) cameras; Lenses for cameras; Power adapters” in Class 9 based on use in commerce under Section 1(a) of the Trademark Act with a claimed first use date of January 22, 2021 (the “REVOTECH Application”).

2. Gradus offers an extensive line of camera equipment and accessories sold to professionals and hobbyists. Among the products it offers and sells in commerce is the REVO branded line of camera equipment and accessories (“Opposer’s Goods”).

3. Gradus’ priority in the REVO trademark derives from use in commerce since at least as early as March 2013, and multiple federal registrations for the REVO trademark.

4. In addition to its longstanding common law rights, Gradus owns the following valid and subsisting federal trademark registrations for the REVO mark covering a variety of products in Class 9 including mounting devices for cameras, camera rigs, video camera stabilizers and other camera accessories (collectively, the “REVO Marks”).

Mark	Reg. Date	Reg. No.	Class/Goods
REVO	Sept. 2, 2014	4595925	Class 9: Equipment, all specially adapted for use with cameras, namely, hot shoe adaptors, camera track sliders, camera hand grips, video camera stabilizers, camera shoulder supports, camera shoulder support rigs, and camera dollies, the aforementioned goods for use in photography and videography and not in video surveillance or security systems, or in telecommunications systems
REVO	Nov. 3, 2015	4846044	Class 9: Camera mounts, supports, and parts and fittings therefor; Adapters for camera mounts; Monopods for cameras and video cameras; Telescoping support poles for cameras and personal electronic devices, and parts and fittings therefor; Camera filter mounts; Tripod adapters; Protective coverings for cameras; Straps specially adapted for attachment to cameras; Camera housings, and parts and fittings therefor; Lens caps and lens covers; Camera lens filter adapters; Camera remote controls
REVO	May 26, 2015	4743896	Class 9: Video camera equipment for use by professional and hobbyist videographers, and not for use in, with, or as part of security or video surveillance systems or telecommunications equipment, namely, mounting brackets specially adapted for use with video cameras

Attached as Exhibit A are printouts of the TSDR status records from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office database showing the full particulars of the marks in the chart above pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.122(d)(1).

5. The federal registrations set forth in Paragraph 4 above are valid and subsisting and constitute prima facie evidence of their validity, and U.S. Reg. No. 4595925 is incontestable and constitutes conclusive evidence of Gradus' exclusive rights to use the REVO mark in connection with the products recited in the registration.

6. Opposer has priority based on its prior valid and subsisting registrations for Opposer's REVO Marks. Further, Opposer used Opposer's REVO Marks in commerce for Opposer's Goods before the filing date of Application Serial No. 90-501820, and the claimed first use date.

7. On information and belief, Applicant had no use of the REVOTECH mark prior to Gradus' first use of the REVO Marks in commerce.

8. The goods identified in Serial No. 90-501820 are identical to or related to Opposer's Goods offered in connection with its REVO Marks. The products of the two parties are likely to be encountered by the same consumers under market conditions that would lead to consumer confusion as to source.

9. Applicant's REVOTECH Application was published for opposition on September 28, 2021.

10. Opposer will be damaged by registration of the REVOTECH mark because the mark incorporates Opposer's entire REVO mark and adds the generic term TECH as a suffix, creating substantial similarity in appearance, sound, meaning, and commercial impression between the two marks. Consumers are likely to believe that REVOTECH is a stylized variation of the REVO mark.

11. Based on the similarities of the marks and the relatedness of the goods, consumers are likely to associate Applicant's goods with Opposer, or with Opposer's Goods, or are likely to believe that Applicant's goods are sponsored, endorsed, or licensed by Opposer, or that there is some other relationship between Applicant and Opposer to the detriment of Opposer.

12. Registration of Applicant's mark is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception and is also likely to create the erroneous impression that Applicant and Registrant are related.

13. For the aforementioned reasons, Applicant's use and registration of the REVOTECH mark is likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive the public, in violation of Section 2(d) of the United States Trademark Act of 1946, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

WHEREFORE, Opposer requests that this opposition be sustained and that the REVOTECH Application be refused.

Opposer will submit payment of the requisite fee with the online filing of this Notice pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.6(a)(17).

Dated: October 7, 2021

Respectfully submitted,
