NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Opposer Title Lock Corporation (“Opposer”), a California corporation with a place of business at 12636 High Bluff Drive, Suite 400, San Diego, California 92130, believes it would be damaged by registration of the mark, HOMELOCK POWERED BY THE DOMIDOCS HOMEOWNER ENABLEMENT PLATFORM & Design, Serial No. 90/456,625, filed by DomiDocs, Inc. (“Applicant”), and hereby opposes the registration of said mark in connection with all services listed in the pending application. As grounds for this opposition, Opposer states as follows:

1. Opposer is one of the nation’s largest providers of home title fraud protection services.
2. Opposer markets and sells these services under the marks HOME TITLE LOCK and TITLE LOCK (“Opposer’s Marks”).

3. Opposer owns a registration with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) for the mark TITLE LOCK, Reg. No. 4,921,876, for fraud detection services, and monitoring public real estate records for purposes of identifying and alerting homeowners of fraudulent, mistaken or otherwise improper filings or recordings, Class 45.

4. The above-referenced registration (the “Registration”) was issued in 2016 and is valid, enforceable and incontestable. In accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 2.122(d), attached hereto as part of Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference is a true and accurate photocopy of information from the USPTO electronic records database depicting the Registration, and reflecting the applicable services, status and current title for the Registration.

5. Opposer also owns common law rights in both of Opposer’s Marks in connection with the services covered by the Registration and related goods and services.

6. Opposer’s common law rights in Opposer’s Marks are valid and enforceable, and Opposer’s Marks are protectable at common law.

7. Opposer has continuously used Opposer’s Marks in interstate commerce since at least 2015. Since that time, Opposer has invested substantial time and financial resources in growing and promoting home title fraud protection services under Opposer’s Marks.

8. As a result of this expenditure of time and resources, Opposer’s Marks have gained widespread and favorable public acceptance and recognition. Opposer’s Marks have become closely and uniquely identified and associated with Opposer and its home title fraud protection services and have acquired extraordinary distinctiveness such that they have become famous.

9. Upon information and belief, Applicant is a Florida corporation with a place of business at 2336 SE Ocean Blvd., Ste. 248, Stuart, Florida, 34996.

10. On or about January 9, 2021, Applicant filed an application (“Applicant’s Application”) to register the mark HOMELOCK POWERED BY THE DOMIDOCs HOMEOWNER ENABLEMENT PLATFORM & Design (“Applicant’s Mark”), Serial No. 90/456,625, for use in connection with providing temporary use of non-downloadable cloud-based software for monitoring public real estate records and online listing sites for purposes of identifying and alerting homeowners of fraudulent, mistaken or otherwise improper filings or recordings, in Class 42. Applicant’s Application claims a date of first use of Applicant’s Mark of July 1, 2020.

11. There is no issue of priority because Opposer’s Registration was issued, and its above-discussed common law use of Opposer’s Marks was established, prior to the filing of Applicant’s Application and actual use of Applicant’s Mark in commerce.

12. Applicant’s Mark is confusingly similar in sight, sound, connotation and commercial impression to Opposer’s Marks. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and with particular respect to Opposer’s mark HOME TITLE LOCK, the primary and dominant element of Applicant’s Mark, HOMELOCK, is comprised entirely of recognizable elements of Opposer’s Mark. As such, the primary and dominant element of Applicant’s Mark is likely to appear to the public and trade as a shortened form of Opposer’s Mark.

13. Moreover, the broadly stated services covered by Applicant’s Application are substantially identical to Opposer’s services.

14. Therefore, Applicant’s Mark, when used in connection with Applicant’s stated services, so resembles Opposer’s Marks, both registered and common law, as to be likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake or to deceive the public and trade, who are likely to believe that Applicant’s services have their origin with Opposer’s business or that such services are approved, endorsed or sponsored by Opposer's business or associated in some way with Opposer's business, in violation of Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), with consequent injury to Opposer, the public and the trade.

15. Further, Applicant's Mark is likely to dilute the distinctive quality of Opposer's Mark, in violation of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c), because Applicant is using Applicant's Mark in commerce and adopted such mark after Opposer's Mark became famous, and Opposer's Mark is being diluted by blurring such that the public and trade, upon seeing Applicant's Mark, are reminded of Opposer's famous Mark and associate Applicant's use with Opposer, even if they do not believe the offered services come from Opposer.

16. Applicant's Mark also falsely suggests a connection between Applicant and Opposer, in violation of Section 2(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(a).

17. In addition, Opposer's right to obtain a registration for Opposer's Mark HOME TITLE LOCK has been hindered by the wrongful filing of Applicant's Application.

18. Specifically, Opposer has filed an application to register Opposer's Mark HOME TITLE LOCK, Serial No. 90/613,745 for fraud detection services in the field of real estate, and monitoring public real estate records for purposes of identifying and alerting owners and other stakeholders of fraudulent, mistaken or otherwise improper filings or recordings, in Class 42 ("Opposer's Application"). In accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 2.122(d), attached hereto as part of Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference is a true and accurate photocopy of information from the USPTO electronic records database depicting Opposer's Application, and reflecting the applicable services, status and current title for Opposer's Application.

19. Although Opposer used in commerce Opposer's Mark HOME TITLE LOCK long before the filing of Applicant's Application and actual use of Applicant's Mark in commerce, the USPTO has issued an office action against Opposer's Application asserting that, if Applicant's Mark registers, the applied-for mark may be refused registration under Trademark Act Section 2(d) because of a perceived likelihood of confusion with Applicant's Mark.

20. For all of the foregoing reasons, Opposer would be injured by the granting to Applicant of a certificate of registration for Applicant's Mark.

WHEREFORE, Opposer Title Lock Corporation believes that it will be damaged by registration of Applicant's Mark, HOMELOCK POWERED BY THE DOMIDOCS HOMEOWNER ENABLEMENT PLATFORM & Design, and prays that Applicant's Application Serial No. 90/456,625 be rejected, that no registration be issued thereon to Applicant, and that this Opposition be sustained in favor of Opposer.

Please recognize as attorneys for Opposer in the proceeding John B. Greenberg (member of the Bar of the States of Missouri and Illinois), Kirk A. Damman, Michael J. Hickey, Bridget G. Hoy, Benjamin J. Siders, Richard B. Walsh, Jr. and the firm of Lewis Rice LLC, Box IP Department, 600 Washington Avenue, Suite 2500, St. Louis, Missouri 63101.
