MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

Pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.19(b), Rexford Brabson of T-Rex Law, P.C., hereby requests permission to withdraw from representation of Applicant Letus Corporation (“Applicant”) in Opposition No. 91278253 showing the Board as follows:

1. Counsel for Applicant, Rexford Brabson of T-Rex Law, P.C., desires to withdraw from representation of Applicant in the matter of Opposition No. 91278253.

2. The request to withdraw is based on 37 CFR §§ 11.116(b)(1), (b)(5), and (b)(6).

Counsel believes that withdrawal can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interests of the client.

3. Counsel has notified Applicant of counsel's intention to withdraw from representation and has allowed time for Applicant to hire another practitioner if desired. Here, enough time remains in the Discovery Period for either or both parties to conduct Discovery, or for Applicant to secure new counsel without material adverse effect.

4. All papers and property that relate to the Opposition and to which the Applicant is entitled have been delivered to the Applicant.

5. There is no part of the fee paid that has not been earned.

6. Attached is proof of service of the request to withdraw upon the Applicant and all other parties to the Opposition.

7. This request to withdraw from representation is not a subterfuge to obtain an extension or reopening of time to which Applicant would not be otherwise entitled.
