Opposition No. 91288867

Gaming Laboratories International, LLC

v.

Gamelink, LLC

Jill M. McCormack, Interlocutory Attorney:

On September 29, 2025, Applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 97489182, with Opposer's written consent.

By the proposed amendment, Applicant seeks to delete International Class 9 in its entirety. However, application Serial No. 97489182 does not contain goods in International Class 9. Accordingly, Applicant's motion to amend is denied with respect to International Class 9.

To the extent that the parties intended to delete the entire identification of goods in International Class 28, the parties will be given time to renew the requested amendment at the end of this order.[1]

[1] In an opposition to an application having multiple classes, if the applicant files a request to amend the application to delete an opposed class, the request for amendment is, in effect, an abandonment of the application with respect to that class, and is governed by Trademark Rule 2.135. In view of the foregoing, the parties should ensure that any renewed request to delete International Class 28 again includes Opposer's written consent. See TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD MANUAL OF PROCEDURE (TBMP) § 602.01 (2025).

In addition, by the proposed amendment, Applicant also seeks to amend the recitation of services in International Class 41 as follows (proposed additions are shown in bold):

FROM: Providing facilities and equipment for playing video games in the nature of social gaming and esports competitions

TO: Providing facilities and equipment for playing video games of third-parties in the nature of social gaming and esports competitions; all of the foregoing excluding facilities and equipment for betting, wagering, gambling, or playing lotteries

The amendment is limiting in nature, as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a). Because Opposer consents thereto, the amendment is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

If the amendment resolves this proceeding, Opposer is allowed THIRTY (30) DAYS from the date of this order to file a withdrawal of the opposition, failing which the opposition will go forward on the application as amended. See Trademark Rule 2.106(c). Moreover, the parties may file their amendment with respect to International Class 28, if applicable, in the same submission.

If no response is filed, proceedings will be resumed and dates reset, as appropriate. Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
