8. Upon information and belief, at least some of Opposer's DINO/DYNO marks are famous and distinctive and became famous and distinctive well prior to Applicant's filing of its application.

9. Opposer has used its DINO/DYNO marks to distinguish its merchandise, goods and services from all other goods and services of the same type, and Opposer has acquired substantial goodwill in its DINO/DYNO marks through use thereof.

10. Since Opposer's initial use of its DINO/DYNO marks, Opposer has made a substantial investment in marketing and promoting its merchandise, goods and services under those marks. Opposer has extensively used, advertised, promoted and offered its merchandise, goods and services in association with its DINO/DYNO marks with the result that Opposer's customers and the general public have come to know and recognize Opposer's DINO/DYNO marks and that the public associates these marks with Opposer and/or its merchandise, goods and services. Opposer has built up extensive goodwill in connection with its goods under its DINO/DYNO marks.

11. Since at least as early as 1963, and well prior to Applicant's filing date, Opposer's famous dinosaur mascot, DINO, has appeared in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade as a giant helium balloon and has been used in association with the promotion and sale of Opposer's goods and services.

12. Since at least as early as 1963, and well prior to Applicant's filing date, Opposer has extensively used its DINO word mark in interstate commerce in association with toys.

13. There is no issue as to priority. Opposer used, filed, and/or registered Opposer's DINO/DYNO marks in connection with its goods and services long prior to Applicant's December 2, 2019 filing date.

14. Applicant's mark and the Opposer's DINO marks are visually and aurally similar, as both prominently feature the entirety of the term "DINO." The addition of the word "RANCH" in Applicant's Mark DINO RANCH mark does little to distinguish it from the Opposer's DINO marks because it is likely to indicate to consumers a new product and/or service created in connection with the DINO Mark, as opposed to indicating a different brand or source.

15. Applicant's mark is applied to goods that are the same, similar to, or related to Opposer's merchandise, goods and services provided by Opposer under its DINO/DYNO marks.

16. Applicant's listed goods are related to at least some of the goods covered under Opposer's various Dino design marks and DINO word and design marks.

17. Applicant's mark so nearly resembles the distinctive DINO/DYNO marks owned by Opposer and is used with same, similar or related goods, so as to be likely to be confused therewith, and mistaken therefore and to confuse, mislead, and deceive the consuming public as to the source or origin of Applicant's goods, cause confusion or mistake as to the origin, sponsorship or approval of Applicant's goods and/or commercial activities, and/or cause confusion or mistake as to the affiliation, connection or association of Applicant and Opposer.

18. On information and belief, registration of Applicant's trademark in connection with the goods herein opposed will result in damage to Opposer's marks and Opposer's business.

19. If Applicant is permitted to register its mark for its goods as specified in the application herein opposed, such use and registration could result in confusion in the trade by reason of the appearance between Applicant's mark and one or more of Opposer's DINO/DYNO marks, thereby damaging and injuring Opposer. Any such confusion may result in the loss of business to Opposer. Furthermore, any defect, objection or fault found with Applicant's goods marketed under Applicant's DINO RANCH mark may reflect upon and injure the reputation which Opposer has established for its goods and services in association with one or more of Opposer's DINO/DYNO marks.

20. If Applicant is granted the registration for use with the goods herein opposed, it would thereby obtain at least a prima facie exclusive right to the use of its mark. Such registration would be a further source of damage to Opposer.

21. In view of the foregoing, Applicant is not entitled to federal registration of its claimed mark in connection with the goods herein opposed because Applicant does not have a right to exclusive use of said mark in commerce on Applicant's goods, further, Applicant's claimed mark could be unable to be distinguished from the merchandise, goods and services offered by Opposer.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that the registration sought by Applicant be refused in connection with the goods and services herein opposed, and that this Opposition be sustained.

The fee required under 37 C.F.R. §2.6(17) are enclosed.
