6. Paragraph 6: Applicant admits it is a Mexican entity with the address provided but specifically denies the characterization of its entity type as a “Mexican Julkinen Osakeyhtiö”. This description was a clerical error; Applicant is, and was at the time of filing, a Mexican Sociedad Anónima. Accordingly, the Applicant is filing a Motion to Amend trademark application 99136737 to fix this clerical error, after efforts to propose opposing counsel, a stipulation pertaining to this point. A printout of the TSDR file of the relevant applications is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
7. Paragraph 7: Admitted.
8. Paragraph 8: Applicant incorporates by reference its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 7 as if fully set forth herein.
9. Paragraph 9: Denied. Applicant denies that Opposer has priority over Applicant and specifically denies that the filing date of Serial No. 98/631176 confers superior rights in this context.
10. Paragraph 10: Denied. While both applications involve Class 33, Applicant denies that the goods are identical or so closely related as to cause confusion.
11. Paragraph 11: Denied. Applicant specifically denies that the VELOCITY mark so resembles the FULL VELOCITY mark as to be likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception.
12. Paragraph 12: Denied. Applicant denies that Opposer will be damaged by the registration of Applicant’s mark.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: NO LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION There is no likelihood of confusion, mistake, or deception between Applicant’s Mark VELOCITY and Opposer’s Mark FULL VELOCITY within the meaning of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d). Under the factors set forth in In re E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 177 USPQ 563 (CCPA 1973), the marks are sufficiently distinct in appearance, sound, and commercial impression.

- Reasoning: While Opposer’s mark contains the word “VELOCITY,” the addition of the word “FULL” acts as a significant modifier that creates a distinct “double-beat” phonetic cadence and a different commercial suggestion of “completeness” or “maximum speed,” whereas Applicant’s mark is a single, sleek term.
- Authority: The Board has long held that even when marks share a common term, the overall commercial impression must be compared. See Palm Bay Imports, Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondée En 1772, 396 F.3d 1369 (Fed. Cir. 2005).

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: PRIOR PRECEDENT OF CONEXISTANCE OF THE SIMILAR MARK Opposer's FULL VELOCITY mark is conceptually and commercially weak in the field of alcoholic beverages. The term "VELOCITY" is highly suggestive of energy or movement, qualities frequently sought after in beverage branding. In support of this argument, a printout of a list comprising the trademarks on international class 33, appearing on the USPTO trademark search tool is attached as Exhibit B. Moreover, a printout of a list comprising the trademarks on international class 33, appearing on the WIPO global brand database, restricted to US jurisdiction and USPTO trademark authority, is attached as Exhibit C.

- Reasoning: Because the term is suggestive, it is entitled to a narrow scope of protection. In a "crowded field" of similar marks, consumers have become conditioned to look to minor differences (such as the presence or absence of the word "FULL") to distinguish between sources.
- Authority: Marks that are highly suggestive or used in a crowded field are "weak" and entitled only to a narrow range of protection. See Juice Generation, Inc. v. GS Enters. LLC, 794 F.3d 1334, 115 USPQ2d 1671 (Fed. Cir. 2015).

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: SOPHISTICATION OF CONSUMERS The relevant consumers for alcoholic beverages, specifically wine and spirits, exercise a high degree of care in their purchasing decisions.

- Reasoning: These products are often purchased based on specific flavor profiles, regions, and brand loyalty. Such consumers are "sophisticated" and unlikely to be confused by two marks that share a common suggestive term but differ in their overall branding and presentation.
- Authority: The "fame" and "sophistication of purchasers" are key DuPont factors. Where consumers are discriminating, the likelihood of confusion is significantly diminished. See Electronic Design & Sales Inc. v. Electronic Data Systems Corp., 954 F.2d 713, 21 USPQ2d 1388 (Fed. Cir. 1992).

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: CLERICAL ERROR IN ENTITY DESCRIPTION The Notice of Opposition alleges that Applicant is a "Mexican Julkinen Osakeyhtiö". This description is a clerical error.

- Reasoning: Applicant is a Sociedad Anónima organized under the laws of Mexico. The term "Julkinen Osakeyhtiö" is a Finnish legal designation (Oyj) mistakenly applied during the filing process. Because the underlying legal person (Embotelladora Global de Licores) is the correct party and existed at the time of filing, this error is a remediable clerical mistake that does not impact the validity of the application or the Board's jurisdiction.
- Authority: The Board allows for the correction of an applicant's entity type when the mistake is clerical and the party identified is the same legal entity that owned the mark at the time of filing. See U.S. Pioneer Electronics Corp. v. Evans Marketing, Inc., 183 USPQ 613 (Comm'r Pat. 1974); TMEP § 1201.02(c).

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: NO DAMAGE TO OPPOSER. Opposer cannot be damaged by the registration of Applicant's mark because the marks are not confusingly similar and the goods are distinct in their trade channels and consumer base. Absent a likelihood of confusion under Section 2(d), Opposer lacks a statutory basis for damage under 15 U.S.C. § 1063.

WHEREFORE, Applicant respectfully requests that the Opposition be dismissed in its entirety and that Applicant's Serial No. 99/136737 be allowed to proceed to registration.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: January 2, 2026
