GOOCH FOODS, INC.

v.

HOMESTEAD, INC. AND NEW WORLD PASTA COMPANY¹

Nancy L. Omelko, Interlocutory Attorney:

The parties' stipulation filed October 5, 2001 to extend discovery and trial dates is approved in light of the information contained in the report on the progress of negotiations. Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

The discovery and trial dates are reset in accordance with the parties' stipulation. Accordingly, at the time of this order, discovery, and the testimony period for Gooch Foods as plaintiff in the consolidated oppositions and cancellation, and the testimony period for Homestead, Inc. and New World Pasta Company as defendants in the ¹ We note the parties' explanation that in February 1999, when Homestead was merged into Hershey Chocolate & Confectionery Corporation, the marks involved in this proceeding had already been assigned to New World Pasta Company.
