APPLIED PRECISION, LLC

v.

SOFTWORKS, INC.

Rochelle Ricks, Paralegal Specialist:

On February 21, 2003, registrant's copy of the Board's order dated February 12, 2003¹ was returned as undeliverable by the Postal Service. A copy is herewith being forwarded to registrant's counsel with the order.

Counsel is reminded that it is the duty of the parties, or appointed counsel therein, to keep this Office apprised of its most recent address.

Nonetheless, the Board also wishes to note plaintiff's consented motion to suspend proceedings (filed January 15, 2003), which has just been associated with the file of record. Accordingly, the motion is hereby granted and proceedings herein are suspended for SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this action, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations within the next six months, the Board will issue an order resuming proceedings and resetting trial dates, including the time for discovery.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
