U.S. Patent & TMO/TM Mail Rcpt Dt. #11

WITHDRAWAL AS ATTORNEY OF RECORD

AND AS DOMESTIC REPRESENTATIVE

Pursuant to TBMP § 116.02 and 37 C.F.R. § 10.40, Opposer's counsel, VENABLE LLP, through Andrew C. Aitken, Esq. on behalf of the firm, hereby withdraws as Respondent's Domestic representative and attorney of record in connection with the trademark registration that is subject of the above referenced Cancellation Proceedings 92045271 and, to the extent counsel is regarded as "attorney of record" in the Cancellation Proceeding No 92045271, it seeks withdrawal in the Cancellation Proceeding as well.

Since Venable has not entered an appearance in the Cancellation Proceeding, it is submitted that no statement of cause is required to withdraw. By correspondence dated December 30, 2005, counsel advised Respondent that it was withdrawing from further representation.

Respondent has received copies of all documents pertinent to this matter as they were received by counsel. Counsel will forward to Respondent, or to such other party as Respondent may designate, any other documents requested by Respondent or such other party, upon receipt of Respondent's request to do so. It is therefore respectfully requested that this Request be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
