v.

Khazzie Kindle

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On April 9, 2007, the Board sent a notice of default to respondent because no answer was of record.

Respondent filed a timely response to the notice of default, which also addressed the merits of the petition to cancel. However, that response was unsigned and did not include proof of service upon petitioner, as required by Trademark Rule 2.119(a). Although the Board, in May 14, 2007 order, allowed respondent time in which to file a signed response to the notice of default, as well as an answer that complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b), both with proof of service upon petitioner, no response to the May 14, 2007 order is of record.

Accordingly, judgment by default is hereby entered against respondent, the petition to cancel is granted, and
